

State seizing all EOC equipment in county

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Editor

As the probe of the now-dissolved Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission (EOC) widens, persons employed by the state were in the Quad-City area Tuesday to seize former EOC equipment and records, with the exception of Head Start Program equipment, which now is under the control of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

H. Brent DeLand, executive secretary of the Illinois Association

IACAA
Illinois Association of Community Action Agencies

of Community Agencies, and Jim Arth of Capital Claim Services, Inc., were here Tuesday and took possession of a former EOC van, office furniture and records from several locations.

DeLand issued a stern warning that anyone in possession of records, money or equipment belonging to the former EOC should surrender it by Monday, March 19, to his office or face criminal prosecution. Approximately $2 million in equipment is unaccounted for, including approximately 30 vehicles, DeLand said.

The EOC board voted unanimously earlier this month to file for bankruptcy, officially closing the agency, which has been under state and FBI study since nearly $1 million in "questionable expenditures" were discovered in an audit by the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs.

Tuesday morning at the Treasure House, 1316 Madison Ave., DeLand and Arth padlocked the basement store after failing to obtain tax records and other records from a woman who was operating the store. She was told to have records ready at her home in Granite City by 12:30 p.m. Tuesday, but when they arrived there, no one was home. Attempts to obtain the records are continuing and the woman has been ordered to cease operating the Treasure House.

THEY THEN went to the Madison Police Department and took possession of a $38,000 van EOC had parked on the city lot.

Next they went to the Madison School Board office, 1707 Fourth St., Madison, and proceeded to schools, where items formerly belonging to EOC were loaded into a trailer and taken to a central holding area in Cottage Hills. The largest amount of equipment was removed from the Dunbar-Johnson school building. They described Madison school officials and police as very cooperative.

Equipment is being centralized in Cottage Hills and at the Granite City Army Installation, and all EOC records are being taken to federal authorities in Chicago for review.

DeLand said he is pulling out all EOC equipment (except for Head Start equipment) from 11 areas in Madison County formerly served by the EOC.

Public notification of the effort to recover all former EOC equipment is expected to be made at a news conference at 1 p.m. today at 52 W. McArthur, Cottage Hills.

Persons in possession of EOC records, money or property must contact the Illinois Association of Community Action Agencies, 1205 S. Eighth St., Springfield, Ill. 62703, telephone 1-217-789-0125, by Monday to avoid possible criminal prosecution, DeLand said.

Items are missing from several locations. In Alton, holes were cut in a chain link fence around an EOC building at 2988 Belle St. and a building was broken into. Cables were cut and a battery stolen from a truck, but it is not known if anything else is missing. At least one van is missing and believed stolen from an EOC thrift shop in Cottage Hills. DeLand said typewriters, audiovisual equipment, tables, chairs and other equipment are unaccounted for.

BY FILING for bankruptcy, board members, who served voluntarily, are protected from personal liability for the agency's debts, which far exceed its assets. Approximately $600,000 to $1 million still is owed to vendors who supplied equipment and food to EOC programs and, a $250,000 loan to the bank of Alton remains unpaid. Back rent owed for several properties will be paid. The owners of some of those properties are believed to be holding EOC records until they are paid.

The state DCCA came up with a grant of approximately $34,000 for centralizing agency equipment and records and to pay the only remaining employee on salary, Gertie Hill, a bookkeeper, $1,200 a month to manage the program. DeLand said she is needed to help compile records estimated to be "two dump trucks full" from the 19 years of EOC's existence.

The bankruptcy court is expected to liquidate all EOC assets, including a house, buses, vehicles and supplies, and to pay former employees first and vendors second. They may receive only a portion of the money due them, as the money from the assets must be spread out among those owed.

THE EOC has been operating out of the Madison County Urban League office in Alton since January, when the agency was evicted from its own Alton headquarters for failure to pay the rent.

PROTECTION FROM FLOODING. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hyllo, 143 Arlington Drive, Arlington Heights subdivision, is sandbagged as a precaution against possible flood damage. The level of the lake in the subdivision has risen dangerously high and is threatening some of the homes there.

Residents allege a Metro-East Sanitary District pump, inoperable since November, as the reason for the unusually high lake level. Norbeck Township workers have done some pumping with portable units, but the volume of water is too great for those pumps to have much effect. (Press-Record Photo by Patrick Foley)

Irish legend is 'rich' in leprechauns

One of the most popular symbols equated with St. Patrick's Day is the leprechaun. Decked out in his green suit, complete with buckled shoes, few people think of the dwarf as being harmful or even unfriendly. But as legend would have it, the Irish considered the leprechaun to be mischievous and sneaky. He was thought to be old and ugly, but very wealthy. He was known as the shoemaker of the fairies because he was often seen with one shoe in his hand.

DURING THE night time, the leprechaun was thought to clip little pieces off a human's money, which he used to build up his pot of gold. He was also thought to take or hide objects of value to humans, such as tools needed for farming.

The dwarf was said to wear the color green because it is the color of the grass and the leaves, thus enabling him to hide more easily from humans. And, although he avoided being caught, the noise made by his constant hammering on shoes sometimes gave him away. Many humans actually looked to catch the creatures because of their desire for the dwarf's wealth. It was thought that, once caught, the "wee person" would tell where he had stashed his gold, if he were threatened with bodily harm.

IT WAS believed, however, that one had to keep his eye on the leprechaun the whole time that he was in one's possession or he would disappear. Stories say that the leprechaun escaped many times without revealing that where he had buried his gold, by telling his captor that something unusual was going on behind him.

One story tells of a farmer who was not on his guard by the leprechaun's foolery and got as far as the dwarf pointing out the bush in the forest where he had buried his gold. The farmer tied a piece of red cloth around the bush and went back to get his shovel, leaving the

St. Pat's parade in GC Saturday

A St. Patrick's Day Parade has been scheduled for Saturday in Granite City. The parade will feature Mrs. Jeanne (Hurley) Simon, wife of U.S. Congressman

Paul Simon, candidate for the U.S. Senate.

The parade will assemble at the American Village Shopping Center, Fehling and Namecki roads, near the unemployment office. Cars should assemble at the site at 11:30 a.m. and everyone is being invited to decorate his or her car and join the parade, organizers say. Refreshments and snacks will be served at the Steelworkers Hall, East 25th and Main streets. Mrs. Simon will address the rally at approximately 1:30 p.m.

Parade marshals will be Bill Harrison and parade chairmen are Von Dee Cruise and Vasil Effimoff.

I-255 site may be busy by next month

Construction of the northern portion of the new Interstate 255 is expected to speed up by April if acceptable bids are received by the Illinois Department of Transportation in Springfield Friday, March 23. The project and several other simultaneous area projects, are expected to provide long-term work for hundreds of local construction workers.

Among the $100 million worth of projects state-wide for which bids will be opened that day are six directly related to I-255, including two bridges, two grade separations, earth grading and improving I-255 access roads along Interstate 270.

ALSO TO BE opened are bids for resurfacing nearly three miles of Interstate 270 from the Chain of Rocks Canal to Route 111 north of Pontoon Beach.

The I-255-related contracts for which bids will be opened are:

- 0.66 of a mile of earth grading for future concrete pavement on I-255 from six-tenths of a mile south of to just north of Interstate 270 between Route 111 and Sand Road west of Glen Carbon.
- 0.78 of a mile of aggregate surface course on Access Road 2 along I-270 between Route 111 and I-255.
- 0.69 of a mile of aggregate base course and surface treatment on Access Road 3 along I-270 between I-255 and Sand Road west of Glen Carbon.

— A grade separation (overpass) carrying Black Lane over I-255 and 4.55 of a mile of bituminous treated aggregate on Black Lane at the west edge of Collinsville.

— Two bridges carrying I-255 over Cahokia Canal between Horseshoe Lake Road and Stallings Road southwest of Glen Carbon.

— A highway grade separation structure of continuous composite welded steel plate girder and slab approach spans with vaulted, instrumented carrying the southbound lanes of I-255 over I-270 between Routes 111 and 157.

IN ADDITION to the work related to I-255, several other area projects are to be bid upon March 23, including: cleaning and painting four bridges on various routes in Madison and St. Clair counties; removal and replacement of the superstructure on Route 15 over Harding Ditch in St. Clair County and 1.435 miles of base course and resurfacing on Route 157 between Route 111 and Lake Boulevard in Centerville.

Also constructing and marking the hangar area access taxiway and terminal parking lot addition at Parks B1-State Airport in Cahokia; reconstruction of the intersection of Route 3 (the Bern Highway) and Ridge Street in Alton; three miles of resurfacing on U.S. Route 67 (Belle St.) from Keller Street in Alton north to near Route 267, and construction of 0.38 of a mile of concrete pave-

Snag sets Brimberry trial back

By PAT HAY LUTZ
for the Press-Record

The trial of Thomas Brimberry was postponed once again—not because his lawyers requested another delay, but because U.S. District Court Judge Clyde Cahill slipped on ice and injured his back during last Monday's snowstorm.

According to U.S. Attorney Terry Adelman, serving for the prosecution in the perjury trial against Brimberry, the trial will begin with jury selection on Monday, March 19. Jury selection began Monday, but Adelman indicated that Judge Cahill may begin anew next Monday because he learned that prospective jurors had been talking about Brimberry during court recesses.

Brimberry will be tried for perjury before the grand jury regarding his alleged involvement in a multi-million dollar embezzlement scheme which bankrupted Stix and Company, a former St. Louis brokerage firm, not related to Stix, Baer & Fuller.

James Massa of Collinsville, Duane Skinner of Pontoon Beach, Arthur Miller Jr. of Granite City and Jerry M. Adams of Madison, Brimberry's alleged conspirators in the scheme, already have been sentenced to prison.

Although never charged with masterminding the fraud, Brimberry was sentenced to 10 years imprisonment last June for obstructing justice during the investigation of the scheme. He was convicted of telling Miller and Maeras to destroy records pertaining to their fictitious Stix accounts. The current trial is expected to last two weeks.

NEW TEAM. Larry Graham, formerly the Madison High School basketball coach, tries on a jacket of his new team Wednesday during a press conference at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. Graham, who has been the Trojan's coach for 15 years, accepted the head basketball coach's position with mixed feelings about leaving Madison. However, Graham said, the job is a great opportunity for him and he anxiously awaits the challenge of rebuilding SIUE's basketball program. See today's Sports section for related story. Massa, Skinner appeal Oral arguments were heard Monday in Collinsville attorney James Massa's appeal of his conviction for a role in the swindle of the now-defunct Stix & Co. brokerage in St. Louis.

Prominent Attorney F. Lee Bailey, told a three-judge panel in the Eighth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Louis that Massa did not know Thomas Brimberry was footing the brokerage firm of Stix & Co. Brimberry, a former Granite City resident, was the key figure in the Stix swindle, prosecutors contend. His trial on perjury and obstruction of justice charges began Monday (see related story above).

Massa was sentenced last year to 20 years in prison. The appeal of another convicted Stix defendant, Duane Skinner of Pontoon Beach, was also heard Monday.

Massa and Skinner had been tried

Weber says judges' criticism 'not the issue' in Barton case

By JIM WOODCOCK

Madison County State's Attorney Don Weber said last week that criticisms of him by the Fifth District Appellate Court in Mount Vernon were "unfortunate but really irrelevant to the fact that the case was dismissed."

The case Weber spoke of involves charges of bribery and misconduct against supervisor of assessments James Barton. Weber represented the prosecution in the case.

THE CASE was dismissed by Third Circuit Chief Associate Judge Edward Ferguson on grounds that statements by Weber prejudiced potential jurors.

The appellate court reversed that dismissal March 2, but it criticized Weber in its 10-page written opinion. The three-judge panel questioned Weber's pre-trial conduct, stating that his actions in the proceedings were "wholly unjustified and inappropriate."

The statement read, in part, "While we applaud the vigorous prosecution of crime, we are appalled when, as here, a prosecutor becomes a persecutor."

"The conduct of the prosecutor in the case at the bar was, to say the least, reprehensible." THE APPELLATE court cited several examples based on information from Barton and his attorney, Bill Lucio.

It was stated that: — Weber suggested publicly that Barton was a "corrupt official," and urged that the county board fire Barton as supervisor of assessments; — Weber mailed Division of Criminal Investigation reports and dismissal procedures to the county board;

Weber said Barton "is just like that school teacher, Van Hook." Weber said because the Van Hook trial had ended, prosecuting Barton and murder suspect John Prante were his top priorities.

— Weber criticized Ferguson, saying he was "never a friend to the prosecution."

WEBER TOLD reporters that the examples had no bearing on the legal charges against Barton, and in some cases, were inaccurate.

"I've never tried to defend myself from any facts or claim I didn't say anything," Weber said. "There's a lot of other things I would've liked to have said."

"But, by law, he (Ferguson) couldn't dismiss the case, and that's the issue. As far as pre-trial publicity, Barton went on and on 15 times more to the papers than I did."

Weber said another allegation against him, that he declared the public wanted a prosecutor like "Attila the Hun," was inaccurately reported by the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

"I DON'T think it's fair that I don't get a chance to defend myself," Weber said. "An interesting thing about the appellate court is that if I try to defend myself,

I can be found in contempt of court."

"It's unfortunate they (the appellate judges) said what they did, but if the court wants a full-blown hearing on my conduct, I've got things I can bring up that are related to this."

Weber said he doesn't know what the next defense move may be now that the dismissal has been reversed.

Lucio said, "At this point, I am not making any public comments," on the dismissal or the allegations of pre-trial misconduct by Weber.

Lenten programs study the disease alcoholism

By DEBORAH WILLIAMS
St. Elizabeth Medical Center

Members of the Talbot Hall Chemical Dependency Unit staff of St. Elizabeth Medical Center will present two of four special Lenten programs at St. Paul's Episcopal Parish, 10 E. Third St., in Alton, on two consecutive Tuesday evenings.

Just as an alcoholic needs treatment, the family also needs help understanding the illness and how it affects them. As the patient recovers and adjusts to a new way of life, the family also undergoes changes.

On Tuesday, March 20, at 7 p.m., these and other aspects of family life will be discussed by Virginia Dellamano, Talbot Hall family program coordinator, as she presents "Roles in an Alcoholic Family."

Marty Lenihan, Talbot Hall chaplain and counselor, will examine the "Disease Concept of Alcoholism and Chemical Dependency," on Tuesday, March 27, at 7 p.m.

Today it is known that dependence on alcohol or mood-altering drugs is an illness, not a crime. Anyone can be a victim, regardless of age, sex, occupation or religious background.

The disease is treatable. It is not necessary for anyone to lose his or her job and good health or for families to suffer.

For more information on these and other programs made available through Talbot Hall, interested persons may call 788-3069.

Vocal students awarded in district meet

Vocal students at Grigsby Junior High and Coolidge Junior High participated in the district solo and ensemble contest in Alton late last week.

Students who received first place ratings from Grigsby include Danielle Apponyi, Donna Bradbury, Beverly Brassfield, Melissa Copper, Beth King, Theresa Maedor, Shari Stephens, Sheri Dadara and Dawn Lamb.

The swing choir at the school received the first superior rating at the contest. They performed "The Music Makers" and a choreographed medley from the 1950's, "The Funtay Fifties." The students were directed by Deloris Barker. Piano accompanists were Melissa Stinson, David Lane and Don Stratton.

Coolidge students who received first place medals were Tony Shaver, Nicole McLaughlin, Chris Duckworth, Travis Whitmer, Steve Barnes, Tammy Dong, Nancy Gardner, Amy Thompson, Marsha Yates, Tim Hillis, Gwen Keen, Shameen Ahmed, Rebecca Burmeister, Beth Earney, Miles Epperson, Ed Bodman, Wendy Crane, Cindy Brown, Amy Aud, Jeff Atchley, Alice Dong, Gwen Springman, Stacy Tutka, Kristy Fuhrman and Glen Lockwood.

Coolidge students are under the director of Sterling School.

YOUTH HURTS WOMAN

After a 16-year-old youth was told to leave Ken's Lounge, 1539 E. 20th St., last week, he turned around and threw a salt shaker at a woman employee, causing a red knot behind her right ear, a police report said.

Emergency care homes are sought

The Illinois Department of Children and Family Services is searching for families in the Granite City and Collinsville areas to act as emergency receiving homes for children requiring immediate placement outside their homes.

Emergency foster parents care for children on a short-term basis until longer-term foster homes are available or until the children can return home.

Although most placements occur during the day, emergency foster parents accept children on a 24-hour basis, according to Jane Heathcote, resource development worker in the department's Granite City field office.

Emergency foster parents cope with a constant turnover of children and may care for up to 80 youngsters in one year, she said.

Recognizing that emergency foster care is a difficult task, the department pays emergency foster parents a $100 per month retainer fee for each approved available bed space. This amount is paid in addition to a monthly board fee ranging from $200 to $247 per child.

The retainer fee is paid even if no children are placed in the home. Heathcote said. The department also pays the cost of all medical, dental and pharmaceutical services for a child in foster care.

For more information about the foster home programs, Quad-Cityans may call Jane Heathcote at 876-8885.

HOUSE BURGLARY

Margaret Lebecky, 704 Niedringhaus Ave., reported last week that someone broke into the basement of her home the previous day by removing hinge bolts from the basement door. They also removed the upper glass pane in the door and laid it on the lawn unbroken but, due to the structure of the dwelling, the intruder was unable to enter the home. There was nothing known missing at the time.

THEFT AT THE YMCA

Ricky Ware of East St. Louis reported $50 taken from his locker at the YMCA during the weekend while he was playing basketball in the "Y" gymnasium. He said he locked the locker, but left the key laying on the bench in the room.

AUTO STRIKES SPEED SIGN

The front of the eastbound auto of Michael J. Niebur, 20, of 14 Miami Court struck a school speed limit sign in the 1900 block of Johnson Road late last week. There was damage to the sign and post, and a license plate was knocked off the car and found at the scene.

Our comments on the primary

Close Mondale-Hart race

The Press-Record today discusses the contested races in the 1984 primary election. Balloting is set for Tuesday, March 20, throughout the state.

If the Democratic presidential nominee remains undecided until the convention this summer, as many people are predicting, our primary will not end the battle. Nevertheless, Illinoisans can go a long way toward influencing whether WALTER MONDALE or GARY HART gets the opportunity to run Nov. 6 against President Ronald W. Reagan.

We do not mention the other contenders because, after "super Tuesday" this week, most have withdrawn.

Former Vice President Mondale of Minnesota started with a massive lead here and the Hart campaign team did not assemble a full slate of delegate candidates in many Illinois districts, including this one.

However, Senator Hart of Colorado captured a series of primaries and had his bandwagon rolling at full speed until this week, when victories in Georgia and Alabama enabled Mondale to rebound. Hart won the same day, in such states as Florida, Massachusetts and Rhode Island, but still trails Mondale in the overall delegate count.

Next week's Illinois voting includes not only convention delegates but also a "beauty contest" among the White House contenders. Although the popularity race gives less tangible rewards than the delegate hunt, it is important for momentum, confidence and image.

Making incredibly rapid strides in polls and voter sentiment, Hart now has a chance to gain an upset in this state, but the outcome could go either way. The AFL-CIO and other supporters of Mondale surely will make an all-out effort on their favorite's behalf.

Hart represents "a new generation with new ideas," while Mondale is making daily use of a restaurant commercial, "Where's the beef?" He says Hart has only vague proposals rather than meaty ideas. Hart counters that there is "beef" in his programs but that Mondale does not want to recognize it because it was not devised by special interests.

Mondale, who has visited here and is known by many in this area, offers executive branch experience and has developed solid ties with unions and senior citizens. Hart, relatively unknown here, is backed by slightly more conservative Democrats and by those who are young and desirous of "change."

Quad-Cityans ought to give careful thought to this subject.

How they vote could prove to be decisive in such close statewide competition between two strong national candidates.

Bauder for county board

For the District 23 position on the Madison County Board, we recommend the incumbent, RODERICK BAUDER of Venice, in recognition of his work for environmental, progress, community facilities, public aid and business development.

His opponent, Donald Garrett, has worthy viewpoints on such issues as education. But we think his private duties, combined with his current elective service on the Madison City Council and Madison Board of Education, might leave him insufficient time to serve actively on the County Board.

Percy, Simon for senate

Whether the U.S. Senate and House will continue to be controlled by Republicans and Democrats, respectively, is important to whoever wins the presidency this fall and also quite important to citizens and taxpayers.

Chief Republican Senate rivals are three-term SEN. CHARLES H. PERCY, Foreign Affairs Committee chairman, and Thomas Corcoran, a conservative four-term congressman who is active on behalf of consumers in the writing of energy and commerce legislation.

A case could be made for either candidate. We lean slightly toward Sen. Percy, who has more friends here and has taken an interest in local traffic, plant reopening and river development programs.

Democrats have four capable candidates for their party's Senate nomination and Alex Seith could win it again. He has made considerable headway by defending the tax indexing law.

Three of the four live in the Chicago area and it is being said that his Southern Illinois residency is hampering PAUL SIMON, the former Granite City area state legislator, ex-lieutenant governor and 10-year congressman.

We endorse Simon as uniquely talented, dedicated and vigorous. The geographic handicap relates to the fact that Senator Alan Dixon is from Belleville, but we think Dixon and Simon are of such exceptional caliber that they could be counted on to keep Northern Illinoisans' needs in mind.

Weber in March 20 voting

For state's attorney of Madison County, we favor incumbent DON W. WEBER for renomination on the Republican ticket, but with some reservations.

He often has seemed to be too outspoken. He has been a "burr under the saddle" for Democratic officials and he, in turn, has encountered their wrath, being targeted by a special grand jury that has not yet completed its investigation of him.

Based on what has become public so far, including his success in prosecuting law violators and reviving old cases that had stumped others, Weber has earned nomination to seek a second term.

His record, however, of indicting influential Democratic office holders and never bringing them to trial to convict them or let them clear their reputations, is bound to be a big issue in the campaign before the general election if Weber is the GOP nominee.

Nominate Price, Gaffner

For Congress, Democrat MELVIN PRICE clearly offers the most substantive candidacy of the three who filed in the primary. Now completing his 40th year in Washington, he heads the House Armed Services Committee and is at the pinnacle of seniority.

ROBERT H. GAFFNER of Greenville, St. Louis Community College District community relations director, won the Republican nomination two years ago and then lost to Cong. Price. He again would find victory difficult to achieve in November.

Gaffner potentially could be a skilled legislator. We believe he deserves renomination, although the Rev. Maurice Horton of East St. Louis also has injected a number of fresh ideas and new approaches into the campaign.

Area residents in downtown Granite City Wednesday were asked for their comments on the latest downtown redevelopment suggestion to construct a motel and shops along Grand Avenue. The responses follow.

Virginia Webb, Granite City

"I think they should go right ahead with it. I worked in the downtown area for 30 years, and it's still very important to me. There's a couple of things they should do before they start that. First, there's too many parking meters that should be taken out or repaired. Second, restrooms - who wants to go to city hall (the nearest public restroom) if they're shopping downtown."

Marguerite Barker, Granite City

"I think it would be wonderful. I'd like to see the growth of the city, and one I could be proud of. My ancestors helped found this town, so it means a lot to me."

Sheryl Kohrumel, Granite City

"I don't think it's going to help the area. They need to bring some business here, but I don't think that's the trick. I think it's a bad area for the kind of business they want."

Mila Robinson, Granite City

"I think it would be great. We need more business in the town."

Primaries show the 'will of the people'

To the Editor,

On Tuesday, March 20, in Illinois we will hold party primary elections. Primaries are very important in our democratic process regardless if you are a Republican or a Democrat. It gives the people a choice and a real voice as to who will represent them in the general election in addition to numerous behind-the-scenes party functions.

An example of how important primaries are for hearing what the people want is the current Gary Hart rise. A year ago, when I would mention Gary Hart, my friends would say, "Who?" But, because of the primary system, everyone now knows who the Senator from Colorado is. Hart was not backed by any of the party "power brokers" of would-be "king makers" or powerful and wealthy special interest groups.

Hart has become a front runner because the ordinary rank-and-file grassroots voters have told the world they want Hart.

Your vote is important on a national level, a state level, and most important, the local level. If you do not vote in the primary, then you really have no right to complain about who runs things locally or nationally.

As a resident of a free country, it is our duty to vote.

Never forget, your vote is important. It lets the would-be "power brokers" know what the people want.

Backs Marsala over Sasyk in Precinct 6

To the Editor,

The Democrats in Venice Precinct Six need to elect a committeeman Tuesday to serve them and not the mayor's political power grab.

Mike Sasyk wants to be elected solely so he can become the Democratic county chairman of Madison County and oust a man who has helped almost everyone in the city of Madison.

What has Sasyk done for us as mayor or precinct committeeman? The only thing I can think of is the hardship utility tax he slapped on us so that he could pay for the equipment he bought for cable television.

I intend to vote for Frank Marsala on Tuesday. Frank really cares about all the people in our area, not just a select few.

No one knows how you vote, so don't fear but let's all cheer by electing someone who really cares about us.

TIM VANDEVEER

Opposes Sasyk's bid for county Demo post

To the Editor,

I read the story of how Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk is now trying to oust Christ Costoff as County Democratic chairman.

Stop and take a look at what Sasyk has done for the city of Madison. He has all but destroyed the Madison Police Department. The city of Madison is presently being patrolled and protected by a skeleton force of police officers, cut back to the bare bone. The street department has faced the same wrath, with services being cut to a minimum. Numerous competent, qualified and professional people have walked away in disgust from our police, street and fire departments, all because of one man.

Sasyk imposed a utility tax on the residents of Madison that generated hundreds of thousands of dollars and not any of these tax dollars were used to upgrade any city services, but were in turn used to finance a city-owned cable alarm system that the people of Madison neither want, nor can afford. Sasyk's own city organization is in a state of shambles and yet he is the man that is qualified to pull the Democratic party in Madison County back together again?

People like Sheriff Emil Toffant, County Clerk Evelyn Bowles, Treasurer Mick Henkhaus and Circuit Clerk Willard V. "Butch" Portell are in office for the following reasons: They are competent, qualified professionals who have the respect and trust of the voters of Madison County but put them in office, not because Sasyk and his cronies sanctioned it.

Christ Costoff is a man of quality and has earned the respect of the people of Madison County. Costoff is a caring individual who uses his office to benefit the people of Madison County and not himself. Costoff has done more for the people than Sasyk ever has or ever will.

I, for one, do not want to see our Madison County government fall into the hands of Sasyk, so that he can lead it down the path of ruination like he has done to the city of Madison.

I urge you to write to your elected officials and your newspaper and express your opinion about what is now happening in Madison County. Don't sit back and let an atrocity such as this happen.

The saddest part of this whole matter is the fact that Sasyk is supposed to be Costoff's friend. Julius Caesar once had a friend like this.

SAYS VOTERS CAN STOP SASYK'S COUNTY POST BID

To the Editor,

At the top of the front page of Monday's Press-Record there was a story of the mayor of Madison trying to spread his power over all of Madison County by becoming Democratic county chairman. Just below that was another article telling about his dispute with Madison police, showing how he has abused the power that he already has.

The people of Madison County can put an end to the mayor's chance to be county chairman by helping elect Frank Marsala as precinct committeeman of Venice Township Precinct Six. He is running against Mayor Sasyk. If the mayor loses the precinct committeeman race, he will not be eligible to be county chairman.

Voters in the forthcoming Community High School election are practically assured of an opportunity to make a choice for the two memberships which expire this year. There are now four prospective candidates, two besides the two incumbents, whereas last year, only one man opposed the pair of officers who sought re-election.

Henry Lueders, prominent businessman, and Benjamin Miller, proprietor of a pharmacy in this city, are circulating petitions and right now and appear to be two men who will run against the incumbents, F.W. Koltmeier and Herman Muelder.

The prospect of a municipally-owned water plant in Granite City appeared brighter this week following a communication from the engineering firm that the application has been approved by the State Advisory Board.

Plans for a municipal water plant include a pump station and distribution system. It was said that the waterworks would be large enough to serve this entire community.

The city of Madison, or rather its citizens, went wild Friday night following the Trojans' 76-43 win over Litchfield in the finals of the Granite City sectional eliminations, and service station operators were reported to be doing nothing short of a land office gasoline business Saturday morning following the hour-long parade of automobiles the preceding evening.

The auto parade, led by a Madison police car and an ambulance, both with warning lights flashing, drew sirens screaming, contained, at one time, no less than 268 cars by actual count, most of them jammed to overflowing with happy basketball fans.

The parade began near the Madison High School as soon as players returned from the Granite City gymnasium by bus.

Relocation of Broadway in Venice - a job 10 years in the planning and beset by financial problems, red tape and other delays - got under way yesterday.

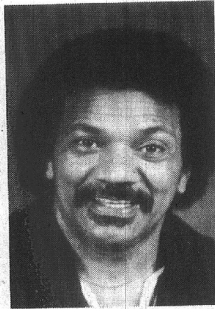

The long-awaited improvement, which will eliminate long traffic delays at the Broadway railroad crossing and afford quick access to Nearly 100 persons attended the ceremony at a point near the Broadway underpass, which has been completed for nearly three years.

ROD BAUDER

DON GARRETT

Bauder, Garrett vie for county board post

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

Two veteran public officials are opponents Tuesday, March 20, for the Democratic nomination in Madison County Board District 23. Contenders are the incumbent board member, Roderick L. Bauder, and one of those who opposed him two years ago, Don Garrett, a member of both the Madison School Board and Madison City Council.

A FOUR-YEAR TERM is to be decided Nov. 6. No one filed for the Republican primary in Dist. 23.

Bauder, 60, of 708 Third St., Venice, has six years of experience on the County Board. Although Garrett, 49, of 401 W. 2nd St., Madison, has never held a county-level elective office, he has served on the candidate screening committee of the Madison County Democratic Central Committee and the county Democratic committee's executive board.

Garrett was elected to the Madison Board of Education in April 1979 and won a new four-year board term in November 1983.

AN ALDERMAN in Madison since 1975, he gained his most recent City Council victory in April 1983. Garrett graduated from the former Dunbar High School in Madison, later attending Washington University, the University of Illinois and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

He is unopposed March 20 for reelection as the Democratic committeeman of Venice Township Precinct Five. The former East St. Louis area newspaper editor has in recent years operated a public relations and promotions company. His memberships include the Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, Urban League, Leading Men and National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Garrett in his initial County Board campaign assailed board district "gerrymandered" boundaries as lacking compactness. He noted that Dist. 23 includes portions of the Venice-Madison area, West Granite and Nameoki Township.

HE FAVORS industrial and commercial development to expand job opportunities, utilizing undeveloped land in Dist. 23. In campaign comments this week, Garrett cited as issues: "(1) excessive taxation and no representation, (2) insensitivity and lack of respect by county government officials toward Quad-City residents and local Quad-City officials and (3) inability of my opponent to direct some of the county's tremendous resources to help with economic development in the Quad-City area, especially the City of Venice."

"There has been no county help in relieving some of the unemployment that exists in our area. Our tax dollars go to Edwardsville and stay there to help develop the Edwardsville, Glen Carbon, Wood River and Collinsville areas," Garrett asserted.

Bauder, a local resident 58 years, was appointed to the County Board in 1977 and won election to the board three times, in 1978, 1980 and 1982.

The 1978 voting decided an unexpired term, and all of the 1980 terms were for two years due to redistricting. After being elected in 1982, he drew a two-year term.

His wife, Valeta, is unopposed in the March 20 balloting for reelection as Venice Township Precinct One Democratic committeeman.

They have a son, Roderick James Bauder, a former Venice policeman and Madison County sheriff deputy who now resides in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

A GRANITE CITY STEEL employee for 34 years, the candidate works as a hot blastman in the blast furnace area. Bauder formerly worked at American Steel Foundries and Laclede Steel Co.

A native of Nebraska, he attended Venice Grade School, graduated from Venice High School in 1942 and then served in the U.S. Navy during World War II.

Bauder is a member of the Nameoki United Presbyterian Church, Chemical Workers Local 50 and Venice-Madison American Legion Post 307.

He comments, "In my six years on the County Board, I have served on numerous committees and am presently chairman of the Environmental Control Committee. I also serve on the Land Use, Sewer and Public Welfare committees."

Easter Seals opens office in GC Tuesday

The new Easter Seal Granite City facility has been completed and the center will open for business on Tuesday, in the Department of Rehabilitation Services office, 3675 Nameoki Road, next to Earl's Sporting Goods.

To celebrate the opening of the newest facility, an open house is scheduled for Friday, March 23, at 10 a.m., at the facility. Light refreshments will be served and tours will be conducted.

Questions about the work of the Easter Seal Society, not only in Granite City, but in the entire Southwestern Illinois region, will be welcomed.

Junior Service offers scholarship

Granite City High School seniors are being invited to apply for a scholarship to Belleville Area College. The Granite City Junior Service Club is sponsoring the scholarship.

Application forms currently are available at high school counselors' office. The deadline for returning the forms is April 30.

Granite City Junior Service Club will be responsible for the selection of the final recipient and alternates. The club is primarily a charitable organization which provides eyeglasses for Granite City students in financial need.

"The club is dedicated to servicing and promoting the Granite City community," according to a club spokesman.

J. DANIEL HINES has been named manager of the public relations department for the Granite City Steel Division of National Steel Corp. Hines will be responsible for all public relations activities at GC Steel, including media and community relations, supervision of employee communications and governmental affairs. He formerly was public relations director for Banquet Foods in St. Louis and director of employee and trade communications for Mallinckrodt, Inc. He is a graduate of Bradley University in Peoria.

Five men and one woman were given the oath of patrolman by Lt. Col. Robert Astorin for Granite City Auxiliary Police. The new auxiliary officers are Paula Towell, Donald Robinson Jr., Cleo T. Angeloff, Pete E. Gram, Gary Michael Sorenson and James Griffin.

Service awards were given for number of years in the Auxiliary Police to Patrolman Gene Kershaw, three years, Sgt. Wm. Landman, nine years, Lt. Randy Smith, nine years, Sgt. Vernon Ryan, 12 years, Sgt. Beverly Singleton, 12 years, Lt. Paul Weathers, 12 years, Capt. Walter Schmidt, 12 years, Sgt. Oliver Corzine, 33 years, and Chief John Becker, 38 years.

Other special guests included Lt. Col. and Mrs. Robert Astorin, Capt. Jim Lengyel of the Granite City Police Dept., Alderman Everett Morien, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Koenig, (he directs Granite City Civil Defense) and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wickham. Mr. Wickham is secretary to Koenig.

later than June 30, 1984. These seniors must attend the Venice, Madison or Granite City public high schools.

The subject of the essay should be related to or concerned with any aspect of the historical background or development or growth of Granite City or the Metro-East region.

All entries must be postmarked before midnight April 30, 1984, after which the manuscripts will be scored.

The winner of the contest will be given a $350 cash prize, with second place receiving $100 and third place getting $50.

Those seniors who are eligible to participate in the essay contest are being encouraged to contact an administrator or teacher at their high school for more information.

4 in GOP primary Congress race

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

Four Republicans are competing Tuesday, March 20, for the right to run for Congress in 21st Illinois District balloting Nov. 6.

The primary rivals are George "Ted" Farmer, 43, Belleville, Robert H. "Bob" Gaffner, 51, Greenville, the Rev. Maurice Horton, 30, East St. Louis, and Charles S. Russell, 47, Belleville.

Farmer, an insurance broker and general agent with the E.F. Hutton Co., is emphasizing that he would "chop at the top" to reduce governmental costs and the federal deficit.

"Our yearly deficits jeopardize our children's future," he asserts. "GOUGING" of taxpayers by defense contractors and others must be halted, along with other waste and extravagant spending.

"I am against any federal income tax increases, since they would only perpetuate irresponsible spending. Federal entitlement programs must be cut, but the chopping should be made at the top."

A five-year Air Force veteran who advanced to the rank of captain, Farmer is a certified life insurance underwriter. He holds a bachelor degree and a master degree (in political science) from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

He and his wife, Virginia, have two sons, Alan and Bobby. The candidate's parents are George Farmer, a retired miner, and Jean Seibel Farmer, a retired teacher.

GAFFNER was the Republican nominee for Congress two years ago, losing to Congressman Melvin Price, Democrat.

He notes that he "captured more than one-third of the votes, garnering the largest number of votes ever won against the 20-term congressman."

"As director of community relations for the St. Louis Community College District, I also serve as chief liaison for legislative relations—a position which requires extensive lobbying and legislative experience in the Missouri state capital and in Washington, D. C."

"I am active in state politics and education as a Kaskaskia Community College trustee and as the Illinois Community College Trustee Association secretary."

"The ICCTA represents 36 community colleges."

"I AM CO-CHAIRMAN of its projects committee for 1983-84 and chairman of its community relations advisory committee to the Illinois Community College Board."

Gaffner served on the Greenville City Council from 1959 to 1971 and is

TED FARMER campaigning in Granite City to "axe tax waste."

St. Louis.

He seeks to broaden that plan to include construction of a 15,000-seat athletic stadium to foster tourism and attract professional teams, plus such soccer games as the "bronze boot." He also favors a 7,000-seat riverfront civic center.

Noting that sports accomplishments have made East St. Louis world-famous, he hopes to utilize a "city of champions" theme as a key to job growth and economic prosperity.

HE URGES cooperation with national firms headquartered in the St. Louis area, such as McDonnell Douglas, Emerson Electric, General Dynamics and Monsanto, to develop areas of the 21st Ill. Congressional District.

Rev. Horton told the Press-Record this week, "In Illinois and across the nation, there is a misconception that the only issues blacks are concerned with are expanded federal handouts and welfare programs. This is an inaccurate and unfair stereotype."

"Many blacks have the same political beliefs as white Republicans, including supporting private enterprise, cutting government spending and returning government to the hands of the people."

"We must not continue to back a political party that turns its back on us and is a loser. We must provide a new direction—a positive alternative in the 1984 elections."

A GOP committee member (East St. Louis Precinct 28) who formerly was president of East St. Louis Young Democrats, Rev. Horton says, "Involvement by blacks in both parties is essential. Every other ethnic group participates in the two-party system but us."

"OUR CONGRESSMAN is chairman of the powerful House Armed Services Committee but has not produced ten jobs for East St. Louis. If elected, I will bring millions of dollars to this region through government contracts and other undertakings."

A high school all-American in football (1970) and baseball (1971), Rev. Horton envisions running for the U.S. presidency, perhaps as early as 1988. As he sees it, "You can do the greatest amount of good from the Oval Office."

Despite oratorical and athletic skills and rapport with people, and a mind nurtured by constant reading, he concludes, "My faith in God is my greatest asset."

Passing up a recent invitation to try out as a free agent for the Chicago Blitz of the U.S. Football League, he told that team, "I can be of more service to you and everyone as a congressman and as president."

RUSSELL ALSO stresses more job opportunities for the district. He comments, "Thirty years ago, commerce and industry flourished in Metro-East. We had the largest pork market in the Midwest. We had many steel mills, refineries and packing houses and one of the largest aluminum ore processing plants in America."

"Heavy and light industries were strategically located here along the Mississippi, with access to barge, rail and truck service that made us second only to Chicago as the major U.S. transportation junction."

"Utilities and service industries, long in place here, were capable of accommodating the requirements of our industrial community. A labor force of high-caliber technicians and tradesmen stood ready."

"What really happened to change all of this? What can be done to regain it?"

"A reasonable fair trade program to help Americans withstand unfair competition is part of the answer."

AN ASSOCIATE of Bill Land, operator of the Cozy Kitchen free food center in Belleville, Russell along with others has been active in petitioning that city and St. Clair County to establish an emergency food and shelter facility.

Married, the candidate has operated small businesses, including an auto upholstery firm in East St. Louis in the 1960s and a construction company in Belleville in 1978-80.

He served as an East St. Louis police officer and detective from 1966 to 1972, a past member of the St. Louis metropolitan area major case squad, and has attended FBI and major case squad investigation courses.

Russell for five years was a rate clerk for a motor carrier in St. Louis and is familiar with interstate commerce laws, traffic and transportation issues and industrial management.

For three years he was a foreman in the titanium industry and he is a past Teamsters Local 688 steward as well as past vice president of the East St. Louis police union.

CURRENTLY a sales representative for a small construction firm in Edgemoor, he also serves as a coordinator for Community Upholding Persons, a volunteer group attached to the Criminal Justice Ministry of the Methodist Church.

Russell began his campaign by assisting ministers and others in giving away foodstuffs, insulating material and blankets to 600 needy persons in Belleville and St. Louis.

Noting adverse effects of the economic recession, he told those he talked to, "We've got to do better."

At an appearance before the St. Clair County Republican Women, he voiced support for the Enterprise Zone Employment and Development Act (HR 1955).

He also is citing concern for preservation of independent farms and support for a flat-rate income tax "to achieve fairness in taxation."

Razing of Madison building for city parking lot approved

By PAT HAYLUTZ
of the Press-Record

Members of the Madison City Council last night approved the razing of a two-story brick building at 415 Madison Avenue (the former Madison Furniture Exchange) to make room for a proposed municipal parking lot. The building will be torn down by Sam Apponey for materials and salvage at no cost to the city.

According to Mayor Mike Sasyk, cost of the purchase of the building and the blacktopping of the parking lot will be taken from grant money. "We have a lot of problems with parking around here," Mayor Sasyk said. "Hopefully, this project will help eliminate some of the problems we have."

Aldermen approved a contract with Apponey which calls for the razing to be completed within 90 days. In other business, aldermen approved the city's participation in the Illinois Work Experience Program (IWEP) which allows the city to "utilize different people who are on Public Aid to work for the city." According to Mayor Sasyk, the city will be responsible for providing workmen's compensation coverage at no additional cost to the city. Madison residents on Public Aid will be chosen to work as part-time clerks, receptionists and in other capacities for the city. "Our sponsorship of this program will allow us to get help for our city, something we need so desperately in these times," Sasyk said. Aldermen also approved a resolution appropriating $209,215 of motor fuel tax funds to be used for the maintenance of city streets and highways during 1984.

The previously announced resignation of First Ward Alderman R. Don Reeves was accepted by the council. Reeves thanked the voters for their support during his nearly 23 years as alderman.

"We commend Don for being a very fine alderman who has worked harder for Ward One," Mayor Sasyk said. "We respect his work and we are sorry to see him go."

Aldermen also accepted the police report for the month of February which showed a 29 percent decrease in crime, as compared to February 1983.

Praising the police department, Mayor Sasyk said, "I think that we have a fine police department and we should be proud of them."

Alderman William Gushleff echoed Mayor Sasyk's comments, saying, "Twenty nine percent is a pretty significant decrease. They should be commended for doing such a fine job."

State officials 'selling' Illinois in Europe today

Governor James R. Thompson, along with state officials and business leaders, hosted their West German counterparts Monday at an "Invest in Illinois Seminar" on the second leg of an 11-day, four-country mission to attract European investment to Illinois.

The governor noted that West German firms have been the most aggressive in locating operations of their firms in Illinois. He cited the many advantages Illinois offered in the areas of marketing, natural resources and taxes.

"More than 500 European firms have discovered already that Illinois is more than the sum of its parts," the governor told the group. "I come as a representative of our 11½ million people to invite you to come to Illinois and see for yourself that Illinois presents a land of opportunity for you."

"West German companies and Illinois have a business relationship that dates back decades," said Department of Commerce and Community Affairs (DCCA) Director Michael T. Woelfler. "With over 180 West German companies operating in the state, they are by far the largest investors in terms of establishments in Illinois."

Forty-eight state business and government officials are taking part in the mission in an attempt to inform European businessmen of the advantages of locating a facility in Illinois. A similar seminar was conducted March 9 in Stockholm, Sweden, and more are scheduled for Paris and London. At each, Thompson presents an overview of the economy, and Europeans who conduct business in the state will speak. Lorenz Weagan of A. Friedrich Flender GmbH & Co. Kg. addressed the group about his company's success in establishing operations in Illinois.

The Flender Corporation of America started as a one-man sales outlet in Addison and now employs more than 100 people at a power transmission manufacturing plant in Elgin.

"Four years ago, we thought that Illinois was the right location for our plant in North America," Weagan said. "Now we are absolutely certain. Our location in Elgin, Ill., not only offers us a well-trained labor force but an excellent marketing possibility for the entire USA and Canada."

Hans Essinger, vice president of Nidecker GmbH, which is the parent company of Precise Corporation in Mundelein, Ill., also talked about that company's recent location in Illinois. Precise, a manufacturer of metal products, including sausage casing clips, began operation two months ago in a 30,000 square-foot plant.

"After a very detailed study from our side, we have come to the conclusion that Illinois is an excellent location for our new manufacturing facility, because of its very central location."

Essinger said the firm already is talking about expansion in Mundelein to manufacture airplane wing parts and special fixtures.

Besides Thompson and Weagan, Woelfler addressed the group on incentives to investing in Illinois; Dr. Lajos Schmidt of Chicago's Baker & McKenzie on tax savings here; Hans Zachiegner of Arther Andersen & Co., Chicago, spoke on tax implications on investments, and Carl Sandberg of Gould, Inc., spoke on high-growth industries in Illinois.

"The seminars answer a lot of questions West German business leaders might have on investing in Illinois," said Woelfler, "and by having one of their peers provide a case history, we feel it lends more credibility to this endeavor."

The group heads for Paris today, London, Monday and returns to Illinois, Tuesday.

Causes, treatment of diabetes topic

The number one cause of new blindness and the third leading cause of death by disease in this country is a disease few people consider - diabetes.

To better further understanding of this disease, St. Elizabeth Medical Center, 2100 Madison Ave., in Granite City, will hold free diabetes classes on Monday and Tuesday, March 19 and 20, from 7 to 9 p.m. in Pascal Hall.

The two-day classes will feature Chris Steller, a registered dietitian at SEMC, who will discuss nutrition, eating out, sweeteners and meal planning using the "exchange" system.

Other speakers include Carol Henrichs, a registered nurse and diabetes educator at SEMC, who will provide a general overview of the disease, including symptoms, management and complications of diabetes, and Michael Weaver, an SEMC pharmacist, discussing insulin and oral antidiabetic agents.

For more information on these classes, interested persons may call SEMC Nursing Service at 798-3142.

Nameoki is seeking toll-free sheriff's department number

By PATH HAY LUTZ for the Press-Record

The possibility of a toll-free number to the Madison County Sheriff's office for residents of Nameoki Township, Supervisor Harry Briggs announced during the regular meeting of the town board on Monday.

Numerous requests have been received from residents to install a toll-free number for persons with telephone numbers beginning with 931- and 676-27 to call the sheriff's office in Edwardsville for police assistance.

Briggs promotes the installation of a toll-free number to the sheriff's department, with the unincorporated areas of Madison County sharing the fee for the service. According to Briggs, the cost would be less than the present fee. "I'm going to call Emil (Sheriff Toftant) this week and discuss the possibility of a toll-free number," Briggs said. "I think that all unincorporated areas of the county would be willing to share the cost, making each area's fee considerably less than what they are paying now."

The sheriff's department has jurisdiction over all unincorporated areas of the county. Tax Assessor Carl Macios reported that the assessed valuation of Granite City Steel in Nameoki Township was cut $500,000 by the county's Board of Review, resulting in a future loss of $3,000 in taxes to the township. At a previous meeting, Macios had reported that the steel mill's assessment would be lowered because of the economic deterioration of the steel industry. Granite City Steel officials requested the reassessment, arguing that it was a matter of economic necessity to lower the assessed valuation at the area's main source of income.

A letter from Attorney H. Carl Runge Jr., indicating that the lawsuit against S. M. Wilson on behalf of the highway department is pending, was read to trustees. According to Runge, the lawsuit, in which the highway department requests repairs for damage that occurred during the installation of the county sewer system, has not been dropped, as rumors have indicated, but is merely pending following ruling.

Other contributions made by the Madison County Sheriff's Department for the emergency room at the hospital, the Christmas street lights for Madison and air conditioning for the Senior Citizens' Center in Madison.

"I'd like to commend these ladies for their outstanding contribution," Mayor Sasyk said. "It took a lot of hard work to earn the money for these beautiful lights, and it is very much appreciated. This is the way you make a city better, and I'd like to challenge other organizations that never have something constructive to say or do, and just have an axe to grind, to make the contributions that these ladies do," he added.

Other contributions made by the Madison County Sheriff's Department for the emergency room at the hospital, the Christmas street lights for Madison and air conditioning for the Senior Citizens' Center in Madison.

He also clarified his position on the performance standards for the Madison Police Department, also an issue in Monday's Press-Record, saying, "It is my objective that every policeman fulfills his duties as pertains to citizen protection and enforcement of the laws. It is not my intent to see the public 'hassled' by the police officers for petty offenses such as a tail light being out, as was stated in the paper (by a Madison officer)."

Mayor Sasyk commended the police department on its job performance, and stated that his administration would support a police force "when they do a good job," but "will make corrections when needed."

GC council briefs

Auto decal sale to start

Granite City vehicle licenses (city stickers) will go on sale April 2, according to City Clerk Robert W. Stevens. He received council permission to hire two part-time clerks to assist with sales at his office. Pat Wickham and Dorothy Petrillo will be paid $4.50 per hour and work until May 25. Local financial institutions also will be selling the stickers. Residents are expected to have the decal on their vehicles by May 1, but enforcement of the ordinance usually begins the latter part of that month. Sticker prices vary, depending on the type of vehicle. Prices double after May 16.

Labor ahead on agreements

Unions representing office workers and police department employees last week officially notified the city they wish to reopen their job agreements this year. The two unions are the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME) Locals 799 and 1347. The city is just beginning arbitration procedures with the police and firefighters' unions concerning wage freezes. Sixth Ward Alderman Woodrow Moad, negotiations chairman, said his committee has selected an arbitrator to represent the city in proceedings with the firefighters, who made their initial request for arbitration in November. In a related matter, Third Ward Alderman Paul Fisk asked the council to consider participating in the joint hiring a county-wide "circuit negotiator" to assist area taxing districts with employee agreements under the state's new collective bargaining law. The law is due to go into effect July 1.

Paint program hiring covered

Granite City youths who will have at least completed their high school years this summer may submit applications by April 22 for employment in the Mayor's Paint Program. Fifth Ward Alderman Jake Varadjan asked the mayor to allow each alderman to submit two names each for hire in the summer program. About 60 youths were employed last year for a three-week period at $7.50 per hour. Those interested may submit applications to the mayor's office or contact their aldermen.

Slow road for ambulance bills

A report on ambulance service payments reveals more than $118,000 is owed the city by customers. The outstanding debts, cover the period May 1982 to January 1984. Second Ward Alderman Sam Whitmer, ambulance chairman, said the small portion of about $2,800 owned by other municipalities to Granite City is apparently uncollectable. Of the total amount delinquent, $86,369 is owned by residents and $27,477 by non-residents. City Treasurer Nick Petrillo is working on the collections, Whitmer said.

Chilly comment on refuse delays

Alderman Woodrow Moad gave an icy reception to a representative of the city's refuse pickup firm, which missed portions of the Sixth Ward following the blizzard Feb. 27 and 28. About 400 residents in the Glenview area went a full week without trash pickups, Moad said. A spokesman Allied Disposal Inc., St. Louis, said some attempt had been made to at least provide partial pickups in the areas that were not reached during regular route days. Mayor Paul Schulz asked the firm to give the city a show schedule to indicate how the company will handle future weather-related situations. City Attorney John Papa will review the city's refuse contract to determine if payments can be forfeited for trucks not made.

Cable costs send wrong message

Alderman Stephen Saltich, cable committee chairman, asked the city attorney's opinion on a payment schedule prepared by South-Western Cable TV, Ltd. The new costs would cover local programs shown on Channel 1. The prices include $45 per hour for studio use; $30 per hour for remote projects; $22 per hour for editing; and $11 per hour to have tapes shown on Channel 1. According to City Attorney John Papa, the city could select allows the company to collect advertising revenues that might be generated by Channel 1 programs, but does not provide for any additional charges. The charges do not concern Channel E, Granite City's local access channel, which advertises programs free of charge low-tech equipment and a supervisor to oversee programs produced for Channel E.

State processing first of 4.7 million returns

The Illinois Department of Revenue is currently processing the first batches of the 4.7 million 1983 individual state income tax returns expected to be filed by the April 15 deadline. Approximately 1.7 million returns had been filed by the first week of March and refunds had been paid to nearly 400,000 of those taxpayers. For the taxpayers who have yet to file, help is standing by at the Department of Revenue.

A new taxpayer assistance strategy designed to decentralize Department information sources will allow individuals to find answers to their tax questions closer to home, according to Revenue Director J. Thomas Johnson. The new strategy, Johnson explained, will incorporate greater participation by Revenue field office personnel in the department's taxpayer assistance program.

"Personnel in each of the department's field offices have been specifically trained to answer virtually any question a bewildered taxpayer may have," Johnson said. "And, of course, we still will be offering taxpayer assistance at both the Tax Processing Center in Springfield and at the State of Illinois Building in Chicago."

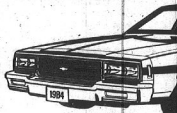

The Department of Revenue has 14 field offices located throughout the state. Taxpayers can find assistance in Rockford, Wauconda, Peoria, Rock Island, West Chicago, Chicago, Champaign, Springfield, Fairview Heights, Marion, Evergreen Park, Chicago, DesPlaines and Broadview.

Taxpayers also may obtain assistance by visiting the Tax Processing Center, 1901 S. 11th St., Springfield, or the lobby of the State of Illinois Building, 160 N. LaSalle St., Chicago. Telephone assistance is available between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. weekdays. Downstate residents may call 1-217-782-3335. Assistance via telephone also will be available for the hearing impaired with access to a telecommunications device. Those dialing 1-217-782-4270 will be connected to the department's tele-typewriter, which is used both to receive and transmit messages. Individuals lacking access to a similar device should contact the nearest county or municipal building, many of which are equipped with the machines. Taxpayers needing assistance may contact the Department of Revenue office at the Southern Illinois Bank Building, Interstate-64 at Route 133, Suite 2, Fairview Heights, Telephone 1-397-9200.

Anyone needing additional forms or schedules to complete a 1983 IL-1040 may write the Illinois Department of Revenue, Post Office Box 3545, Springfield, Ill 62708.

3 win $3.9 million each in state lotto game

Three Illinois State Lottery lotto players matched the six winning numbers drawn March 10 and each will collect a $3,922,020, 20-year annuity, paid at the rate of $196,101 a year. It was announced Monday afternoon.

They include David Sampson, 31, of Tiskilwa and Antoinette Romo of Chicago.

Lottery Supt. Michael J. Jones said the three winners will share the actual cash in the lotto grand prize pool, which totaled $4,915,656. The lottery, according to its regulations, will purchase each winner's annuity with their $1,638,618 share of the actual cash in the grand prize pool.

If only one lotto player had matched the six winning numbers, that player would have received a $12 million, 20-year annuity, paid at the rate of $600,000 a year.

The entire $4.9 million grand prize pool would have been used to purchase that annuity.

The three grand prize winners each won the second largest lottery prizes ever awarded in Illinois.

In October 1983, Betty Gloss of Glen Ellyn and Ken Natzke of Burbank each won $6 million, 20-year annuities in lotto.

Lotto sales reached a record $14.2 million last week, as lotto fever—a phenomenon that occurs whenever the lottery offers exceptionally high lotto prizes—swept the state.

At peak times on Saturday, lotto sales reached $12,000 a minute and agencies reported lines of up to 50 players.

The previous lotto weekly sales record was $10.6 million in the week of Feb. 18, when the lottery guaranteed a single winner grand prize of an $8 million, 20-year annuity.

The latest winning numbers were 12, 21, 24, 26, 33 and 37.

Jones said the lottery will guarantee a single winner grand prize March 17 of a $4 million, 20-year annuity. Multiple winners would share the actual cash in the grand prize pool.

In addition to the three grand prize winners, 1,277 players matched five of the six winning numbers and each will collect $1,111.

There were 54,554 players who matched four of the six winning numbers and each will collect $39.

The lottery control board has approved several changes in lotto which will take effect in mid-April. At that time, lotto players will select six out of 44 numbers rather than the current six out of 40.

The change will minimize the chances for many players to select the same six-number combinations, creating more single grand prize winners.

It also will help create more drawings in which there will be rollovers to help make future drawings' grand prizes even larger. Lotto prizes will continue to amount to about 50 percent of total sales.

Jones noted that on Sunday, March 18, the lottery's televised daily game, Pick 4 and lotto drawings will move from WGN-TV, Channel 9, to WFLD-TV Channel 32, Chicago. The drawings, which will continue at 8:30 p.m. each day, will also be broadcast live on WMAQ Radio, AM 67, in Chicago.

FOUR CHARGES AGAINST MAN
Found asleep behind the steering wheel of a pickup truck Wednesday at the St. Elizabeth Medical Center loading dock, James J. Granite City Elks name 'Teenagers of the Month'

Monica Fanning and Thomas Adamitis have been named teenagers of the month by Granite City Elks Lodge 1063. Both are seniors at Granite City High School. Miss Fanning, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Waterson, 3133 Parkway Drive. Her school activities include the National Honor Society, Theatrics, Science Club, Varsity Club and Peppermint Players. She has been active in the attendance office for four years.

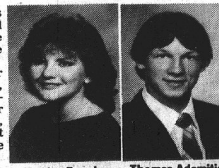

She has been active in junior varsity and varsity basketball, varsity softball, junior varsity volleyball and as statistician for the boys' varsity basketball team. Her hobbies include reading, cooking and sports.

Adamitis, also 17, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Adamitis, 2112 Amos Ave. He has been active in the National Honor Society and as president of the Varsity Club. Adamitis also was the 1983 homecoming king.

He was captain of the varsity football and basketball teams and is a member of the varsity baseball team. Adamitis' hobbies are jogging and reading.

The teenagers of the month program is sponsored by the local Elks lodge to recognize outstanding teenagers in the area. Citizenship, scholarship and leadership are the basis for selection of the teenagers of the month.

The students are nominated monthly by their classmates and Monica Fanning Thomas Adamitis teachers then are screened by a student-teacher committee for the final selection.

County's sewer group recommends resolution

In a brief meeting last night, members of the Madison County Board's special sanitary sewer committee discussed a resolution to award a contract for a high power washer for the sewer pumps. The resolution is subject to approval by the county board next week.

Also at the meeting, the board approved the purchase of new bills for the sewer district customers. The bills will cost $1,500.

The board has reduced the number of meetings conducted each month from two to one. Committee Chairman Morris Miles said additional meetings will be called during the month, if necessary.

Home orchard pruning demonstration Saturday

By RONALD E. CORNWELL
U of I Extension Adviser

A home orchard pruning demonstration is scheduled for Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon at the Paul Krueger Orchard northwest of Godfrey.

Homeowners will have an opportunity to see how to prune tree fruits and small fruits. The tree fruits to be pruned include apples, peaches, pears and apricots. The small fruits include grapes and blackberries.

Chris Doll, University of Illinois area adviser, will be demonstrating how to prune tree fruits and small fruits.

The program is for homeowners in both Madison and Jersey counties who raise tree fruits and small fruits in the backyard.

To locate the Paul and Joann Krueger Orchard, take Route 111 past Alton Square until it intersects Route 67. Turn north (right) onto Route 67, going past Lewis & Clark College to the point where Route 67 splits into Route 267 and Route 67. Just before reaching this point, take Airport Road left (west). There is a sign where you turn west that says Krueger's Orchard 1 1/2 miles then right one mile. Krueger's Orchard is on the right side of the road with a sign in front.

For additional information on the home orchard pruning demonstration, call the Extension office at 1-656-8400.

1983 CROP YIELDS
The Illinois Crop Reporting Service just released their estimates of the corn, soybean and wheat yields in Madison County for 1983.

The 1983 corn yield in Madison County was 56.9 bushels per acre. The 1983 soybean yield in Madison County was 22 bushels per acre. The final wheat average for the county was 47 bushels per acre.

BEEP HEALTH CLINIC
The Southern Illinois Beef Health Clinic will be Saturday, March 17.

from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Rend Lake College Auditorium at Rend Lake Junior College.

Rend Lake Junior College is located on Interstate 57 south of Mt. Vernon at the Ina exit.

The program will feature a number of commercial exhibits.

Topics to be covered on the program include handling facilities, herd health program for the newborn calf, reproductive performance, fescue toxicosis syndrome, coloring problems, daylight calving, insect control and common field problems.

Speakers include Larry Wilson, Crawford County adviser, Dr. Jay Brown, University of Illinois veterinarian, Dr. Duane Miksch, beef veterinarian from the University of Kentucky, Dr. Gary McKibben, practicing veterinarian from Anna, and Tom Saxe, area livestock adviser. For additional information on the program, contact Ken Metz at the Extension office 1-656-8400.

NEW PUBLICATION
The university has just released a new circular entitled "Design for a Grassed Waterway."

The circular covers information on hydrologic design, shape and dimension, construction, establishment of grass, design example, maintenance, sediment filters and livestock waste disposal.

The circular is available free upon request from the Extension office.

LIVESTOCK HOUSING

At this time of year, it's important to check livestock housing for danger spots. The livestock buildings you work in and around every day often become so familiar that it's easy to overlook the unsafe areas.

Producers should keep in mind the following general safety tips:

— Make good housekeeping a top priority. Clean trash and junk from in and around buildings. Clean alleyways, pens and corrals.

— Eliminate tripping hazards.

— Use a brightly-colored paint on hazards that cannot be eliminated.

— When handling moldy hay or feed, use a nuisance dust respirator to guard against "farmers' lung."

— Never enter a manure pit or any tank that holds decaying organic material without an air-supplying respirator. Someone should always stand by to provide help if necessary.

Besides creating a safer working area, you'll make your farmstead more attractive as a result.

VENICE MAN IS CHARGED

Benjamin F. Garrett, 19, of 706 Bissell St. Apartments, Venice, was charged late last week with a stop sign violation and not having a valid driver's license. He was released on a notice to appear in court.

STEAL $1,600 CLEANER

An industrial-size carpet cleaner mounted on three wheels with attachments, valued at $1,600, was stolen from a utility-laundry room at the Village Lane Apartments, it was reported last week.

PRUNING DEMONSTRATION. Paul Krueger demonstrates how to make a pruning cut on an apple tree in his orchard. He and Chris Doll, University of Illinois area adviser, will demonstrate how to prune Saturday morning at the Krueger orchard.

17 car crashes in snowstorm

As four inches of snow fell Monday, Granite City police recorded 17 traffic collisions on slippery road surfaces. Injuries totaled four.

Two-car mishaps were tallied at 9:20 a.m. at the Crossroads Shopping Center, and at 18th-Madison Avenue, at 9:30 at Pontoon-Wabash avenues, at 10:30 a.m. at 101 Wilson Park Lane, at 11:15 at 3030 Madison Ave. and at 11:20 at 200th-DeMar.

At 11:45 a.m., an auto skidded and knocked down a traffic light post on Madison Avenue at E. 23rd Street. Five minutes later, two cars collided at the National Food Store lot and there was another two-car crash at 23rd-Madison.

On Fehling Road 200 feet north of Bradley Avenue at 11:55 a.m. Monday, the southbound truck of Joseph Simpson, 31, of 2604 North St. slid into a guard rail and light post. It then was hit by the skidding auto of Dr. Michael G. Baggot, 66, of 2650 Edison Ave. Both were hurt and Simpson was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center along with Debra Simpson, 28, of 2604 North St.

Several minutes later, the undrivable Simpson truck was hit in the rear by the southbound truck of Christopher Skoklo, 30, of 1607 Fifth St., Madison.

The icy section of Fehling Road was determined to be so hazardous that the street was closed for a half-hour while crews worked on it.

Five minutes after a 12:10 p.m. two-auto mishap in the 1200 block of Niedringhaus Avenue, the auto of Rocky L. Gray, 31, of 2012 E. 20th St. slid while northbound on Madison Avenue at 16th St. and hit the left side of a National Steel Co. train engine operated by Michael Millsap, 2819 Emme Ave. Gray was taken by ambulance to receive St. Elizabeth Medical Center treatment.

Two-vehicle crashes occurred at 12:35 at West Pontoon Road-Missouri Avenue and at 3:55 p.m. at 18th Street-DeMar Avenue.

A skidding auto broke an Illinois Bell utility pole at 4:40 p.m. Monday at W. 21st Street-Ohio Avenue.

And at 10:50 p.m., Gary L. Caldwell, 31, of 5204 Lakeview Drive, Pontoon Beach, was ticketed for failing to yield the right-of-way and failing to give information on a collision at Maryville Road and Stratford Lane.

There was damage to the front of his northbound auto and the left side of the westbound van of John R. Koesterer, 2715 Iowa St. Caldwell was taken into custody in the 2300 block of Gary Avenue.

Graham appointed new SIUE basketball coach

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER

of the Press-Record

EDWARDSVILLE. A new coach. A new gymnasium. A new beginning.

That's the way officials at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville are approaching the announcement of Larry Graham as the Cougars' new basketball coach. The announcement was made Wednesday afternoon by Dr. James R. Buck, SIUE's director of development and public affairs, from the Sam Vadalabene Center on the campus of SIUE.

Graham, who coached at Madison High School for 15 seasons and posted a 329-99 record, succeeds Tom Pugliese as the Cougar mentor and becomes the fourth SIUE coach.

"I'm really honored and delighted to be the next SIUE basketball coach and to be the man selected to rebuild this program," Graham began after Buck's introduction.

"I have a lot of confidence in myself and I really think that I can do the job. It's going to be a tremendous and terrific challenge."

"This is a job I've always looked at when coaching at high school. A job that I've always thought I'd like to have."

"I have a lot of mixed feelings about leaving Madison High... However, I feel like I've done all I can at Madison High School and professionally that it's time to move on and this is a wonderful opportunity."

In Charleston Super-Sectional Wolves use free throws to end Trojans' season

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

CHARLESTON. — Madison High School's basketball team was rudely reminded of two cruel facts Tuesday night in the Charleston Super-Sectional. Scoring the most field goals does not necessarily guarantee a victory, and free throws are a big part of winning a basketball game.

In the final step before the state tournament, the Flora Wolves used the free throw to near perfection, sinking 23 of 32, to defeat the Trojans 62-52 and earn a berth into this weekend's Class A state tournament.

IT WAS THE second time in as many years, the Madison High School basketball team has been defeated in the Charleston Super-Sectional at Eastern Illinois University's Lantz's Gymnasium.

Last year the Lawrenceville Indians, who went on to win the Class A state championship, defeated the Trojans 62-48.

The Wolves' eventual 10-point victory is not indicative, however, of the closeness of the game. After establishing and then relinquishing a 5-0 first-quarter lead, the Trojans trailed the rest of the game. Most often by seven, four and on three occasions by just one point before the Wolves eminently pulled out the victory.

THE TROJANS, however, with two state championships to their credit and this being their sixth appearance in the super-sectionals in nine years, were favored. Rated second in Illinois by the Associated Press, the Trojans, it seemed, have frequented the super-sectional enough to feel comfortable there.

Flora, on the other hand, is another story. Not since 1947 have the Wolves been in a super-sectional. It's been a long dry spell for the Wolves, 37 years to be exact. They were due.

In addition to Flora's coming from the same sectional which featured last year's state champion Lawrenceville, there was another similarity between Tuesday's and last year's Charleston Super-Sectional.

LAST YEAR, Lawrenceville was led by No. 16 Marty Simmons, a 6-foot 5-inch senior nicknamed "Mule." Simmons, now with Bobby Knight at Indiana, scored 35 points to pace his team to victory.

Flora had a No. 50 of its own, Mark Stanley. Stanley scored just eight points for the Wolves, but Flora coach Tony Welch upstaged Stanley's importance on the team and in the Wolves' victory.

"Stanley's been our team leader throughout the year. In most of our big games, Mark has been our big guy. Generally, he doesn't even shoot 10 times, but he still manages to average 16 points per game," Welch said. "Mark has been our leading rebounder averaging eight boards a game."

"We've scouted Madison and we believed the way to beat them is to press them into a half-court game, not allow them any second shots and no layups," Welch said.

"They're not a very good outside shooting team. We thought if we could force them outside we could beat them."

"One of the things we've got is good balance," Welch said. "We don't have to go to one kid all the time. If they give us the outside we take it."

MADISON didn't necessarily give the Wolves the outside shots, but Flora took them anyway, connecting on 17 of 33 attempts from the field for 51 percent.

However, it wasn't the field goals which lifted the Wolves past the Trojans. It was free throws. In few words, the Wolves won from the charity stripe.

The Trojans managed 21 field goals, four more than the Wolves, but Flora sank 23 of 32 attempts from the free throw line for a staggering 72 percent. Those free throws coupled with a six of seven field goal performance by Kevin Colclasure and a 22-point performance by Greg Leib boosted the Wolves to a super-sectional victory and a berth into the state championship tournament.

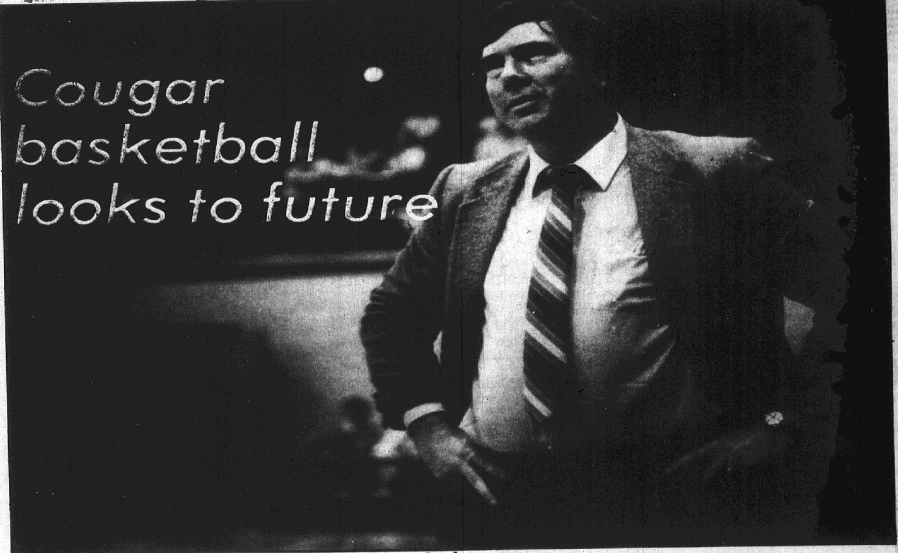

FOR MADISON, the super-sectional game was a parody, of sorts. Madison, which rolled to a 27-2 record that included a 26-game winning streak, was not itself. Not like it had been in the past.

Shots which normally swish through the net without touching the rim, bounced errantly off without scoring. Not just once, but several times. Too many times to count.

Furthermore, as many times as the Trojans battled back, threatening to retake the lead, they were never able to. Each time as Madison was within striking distance, it could not convert the big play to retake the lead. Madison coach Larry Graham faulted his team and credited Flora for the Trojans' inability to re-establish the lead.

"We didn't play well. Every time it came down to a crucial time, a

Larry Graham

'first year, I'm not willing to concede anything," Graham said.

THE NEW Cougar coach is optimistic that despite not having the upper classmen, SIUE can win next year if it gets "the right players."

"It's been proven that freshmen can play on the varsity level. Knowing that, they may come in here and have the opportunity to play right away should be an incentive to draw some of the best young athletes."

To attract some of those "best athletes," the university has allocated $40,000 to work with $20,000 for scholarships and $20,000 for operating expenses, Buck said. That does not, naturally, include Graham's salary.

Graham's salary was not discussed except by Graham. He said it did reflect a cut in pay from his position at Madison, but that he and Buck were "optimistic that something could be worked out."

WHEN ASKED about his coaching philosophy Graham said he's tried to instill hard work into his teams. "I've worked hard and the kids have worked hard. That's the secret to winning."

"At Madison, we've succeeded by using an attack offense and an attack defense," Graham said.

Graham, whose Trojans had won 26 consecutive games going into Tuesday night's 62-52 setback to Flora High School in the Illinois Class A Super-Sectional in Charleston, currently ranks among the top high school coaches in Illinois.

During the past nine years, Madison has won its regional title nine times, made the elite eight five times, reached the final four three times, and won the state championship twice, in 1977 and 1981.

While at Madison, Graham also guided two other basketball teams. From 1974 through 1977, Graham coached at Parks College leading it to a three-year mark of 55-24, including a 26-3 record and a number one ranking among small colleges in 1976-77.

LAST YEAR, Graham initiated a basketball program at Granite City Center and posted a 13-8 record.

Selected as the Illinois High School Coach of the Year twice (1977 and 1981), Graham earned an Associate's degree from Vincennes University Junior College in 1962, a Bachelor's degree from Texas Wesleyan College in 1964, and a Master's degree from Indiana State University in 1966.

Graham, 41, is married and has three children. His wife is Wanda and his children are Nita, 20, Gina, 19, and Steve, 4.

Before closing the interview, Graham vowed to be as accessible to the media as possible, even after losses. And when the Cougars win, said Graham, "I'll be waiting for you on your doorstep."

Warrior girls rebound to defeat Oilers

By PAULA WISE
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — After a very slow first quarter, the Granite City Warrior girls' basketball team rebounded to take a 44-30 victory away from the Wood River Oilers in the first round of regional play Wednesday night.

The Warriors, who trailed 8-5 after the first quarter, opened the second quarter with eight straight points from Debbie Brandt to take the lead away from the Oilers.

Warrior Coach Gordon Galbreath contributed his team's early problems to nervousness.

"We won the game but looked so lousy," said Galbreath. "The girls were so nervous in that first quarter. They outplayed us, but we came out ahead on the score."

Cagers not flawless, but effective

ALTON — Madison coach Carol Cole reflected for a moment after her team's 58-43 victory over the Southwestern Birds in regional action Wednesday.

The contest was riddled with mistakes, ranging from double-dribbling to passes out of bounds. Southwestern, with a poor 10-14 record, tallied 20 turnovers. Madison, now at 19-2, made an equally embarrassing 22 mistakes.

Cole preferred to point out the bright side.

"I'm happy we won," said Cole. "I wasn't real pleased with our performance, but today was about the only day the girls could afford to play poorly. Maybe this will get it out of their system."

Cole said the mistakes were probably due to a lack of action in recent days. Madison has not played a game during the past week and also has been cutting practices short because of the boys' basketball playoffs.

"It's kind of hard when you're

IN THE first half the game looked like the "Lisa Lilley and Debbie Brandt Show" as the two combined for 20 of the Warrior's 23 points.

Lilley, who finished the game with 19 points equaling her season average, was highly praised by Wood River Coach Mike Hudock.

"They didn't hurt us inside. Number 42 (Lilley) hit from the perimeter. That made the difference. She hit 15-foot shots with people in her face. You don't see very many who can do that," said

Hudock.

"When we play our best and someone has a game like that all you can say is congratulations."

Despite the fact Hudock knew Lilley would be the player to stop for the Warriors, he did not tell his players to concentrate on her.

"I tried to set our defense to control their offense instead of letting their offense control our defense," said Hudock.

REGARDLESS of Coach Hudock's plans, the Oiler defense could not control the Warrior offense. In the third quarter the Warriors put their nervousness behind them and began to play basketball. Loretta Cox and Kathy Juhasz made key baskets to enable the Warriors to increase their lead to 10 points, 34-24, by the end of the quarter.

Despite the turnaround on offense the Warrior defense was still having trouble. Nancy McClew was on the bench with four fouls and Juhasz was also in foul trouble. The press was proving less effective than in recent games which meant less steals for the Warriors.

One reason for the Warrior's problems was the absence of starting guard Monica Fanning who is out with a throat infection.

"We weren't running our defense too well," said Galbreath. "I think part of that was because Monica wasn't with us. She's usually our point on the press. Kathy (Juhasz) did a good job she just did things a little differently because she's used to playing back farther."

WOOD RIVER made a run at the Warriors in the final quarter outscoring Granite City 15-10. The departure of starters McClew and Juhasz, because of foul trouble, seemed to help the Oiler cause.

Five straight points by Wood River's Ashley Hill pulled the Oilers to within five in the final minutes but it was not enough as the Warriors went on to win.

The win places the Warriors in the regional final tonight against the Edwardsville Tigers. The game is scheduled for 7 p.m. at the Memorial Gymnasium. The admission price is $2.50 with gates opening at 6 p.m.

IN EARLIER action Wednesday, top seeded Edwardsville secured a place in the finals by defeating Roxana 83-48. The Tigers were led by Cindy Cox with 24 points and Elaine O'Neil with 22 points. Paula Rosoycki added eight points for the Tigers as well as several assists.

Ashley Gates, of Roxana, led all scorers with 28 points.

Trojans

chance for us, they came down and made a shot. Every time we made a run at them, it seems we'd make a little mistake or they'd make a shot or do something great.

"They deserved to win the ball game," Graham said. "They shot the ball well and they made their free throws."

TURNING the spotlight back towards his team, Graham said Madison's offense has been suspect this year and Tuesday night it caught up with the Trojans.

"We've been hurting all year offensively and finally it caught up with us," Graham said. "Some of our guys were slumping coming into this game. We were hoping they'd break out of it but it didn't happen. Tonight we only had one shooter," Graham said referring to Michael Young, the Trojans' 5-foot 10-inch senior guard. Young went on to pace the Trojans with 22 points, a game high.

Graham complimented the Flora defense, saying he thought it did a good job against Madison's defense. He punctuated that statement by saying the Trojan's offense was not up to par.

"We need to, every team needs to, play well in a big ball game, and we just didn't do it. Although we had the opportunities to do so. We just couldn't do it."

Such a time came in the beginning of the fourth quarter. After trailing by as much as four at the end of the first quarter and nine at halftime, the Trojans battled back to within one point, 36-35, by the end of the third quarter.

WHEN the fourth quarter began, the Trojans were on a roll. Reggie Banks tipped the ball towards Victor Valentine, but in Valentine's eagerness to pull the ball down he fouled Greg Leib. Madison's fifth team foul of the second half, Leib calmly sank both ends of the one-and-one situation to pad Flora's lead by three, 38-35.

That was one crucial time in which the lead eluded the Trojans.

To further take momentum away from Madison, Tim Locum, Flora's freshman sensation, sank the ensuing shot to put the Wolves up by five, 40-35.

Madison's James Bennett, capitalizing on two free throws, appeared to prompt the Trojans back into the swing of the game. Flora's No. 11, Colclasure, however, had different ideas.

NITTING from his favorite spot, atop the key, Colclasure provided another five-point lead for the Wolves.

After that, DeLloyd Williams was tagged for a travelling penalty and Flora's Locum sank two free throws to increase Flora's lead to seven, 43-37, with nearly six minutes remaining.

As far as Madison was concerned, things then went from bad to worse. With the Wolves maintaining their seven-point lead, Valentine picked up his fifth foul as he attempted a steal from Colclasure.

With the aid of Colclasure's free throws and then another, Flora opened up a 10-point lead. But, just when it appeared the Trojans were out of it, they battled back again.

Young penetrated the Wolves' defense and dribbled in for a bucket. Williams, not to be outdone, stole a pass intended for Colclasure, dashed three-fourths length of the court for a layup.

A FLORA time out failed to stop the Trojans. Young sank both ends of a one-and-one situation which moved the Trojans back to within four, 50-46.

With just two and half minutes remaining, Leib sank both ends of a bonus situation to put Flora back on top by six, 52-46.

Young retaliated to cut that lead to four once again by sinking a jumper from the left side, 52-48, but Colclasure came through again for the Wolves, sinking two at the free throw line.

Leading by six, 54-48, Bennett sank two free throws and Young scored after dashing the length of the court for a layup. The tally, Young's 22nd of the evening, put Madison back to within two, 54-52.

It was, however, the Trojans' last score of the evening. Flora went on to score a field goal and six free throws in the final 60 seconds to coast to the victory.

The win pits the Wolves in the fourth game of the Class A state tournament this Friday at the University of Illinois' Assembly Hall. In that game, which begins at 8 p.m., Flora will meet Providence St. Mel, the winner of the New Lenox (Lincoln Way) Sectional.

Semifinal games are scheduled for this Saturday at 11:15 a.m. and 12:45 p.m. The third-place contest is at 6:30 p.m. while the championship game is slated for 8:15 p.m. Saturday.

BART LANE of Granite City High School displays his third place medal won this month at Bradley University. He was one of 18 original comedy participants who advanced from sectionals to the Illinois High School Association Speech State Tournament. After two rounds of preliminary competition, Lane advanced to the final round with five other students and he finished third. THE GCHS speech team is coached by Ron Pennell.

WINNERS of the Wilson School racquetball tournament for this year led by Bob Page, teacher, and Janine Cooper, aide. Shirts and free racquetball time was donated by "Spartan Health Spa" for the event. From left, Joey Green with first place trophy, Chris Barnes, second, Jack Kellen and Jason Leonard, who tied for fourth place honors, and Chad Angle holding third place trophy.

Mrs. Catherine Mauck is guest speaker

St. Patrick's Day motifs provided the table appointments for the monthly luncheon meeting of Trio Unit, Homemakers Extension Association held last week, at Hope Lutheran Church.

Chairman Arline Brinkmeyer introduced Mrs. Catherine Mauck, home extension advisor, who spoke on "Spot and Stain Removal" giving the unit guidelines on treating stains in garments. She said you must know the fabric, analyze stains and know how to test stain removers as well as cautions in their uses and methods of removal.

Also, the group was given prescriptions for spotter solution, dry and wet, and how to use ordinary household cleaners in caring for garments, as well as the every present need for the professional dry cleaners.

Hostesses for the day were Helen Pfeiffer, Marguerite O'Neill and Lucille Etheridge.

The business segment was opened by Mrs. Brinkmeyer by leading all in the pledge to the flag. Vivian Forsee, secretary, gave her report and Helen Robertson, treasurer, reported on funds disbursed and the current balance.

Second Vice Chairman Audrey Nagy announced the membership drive now in progress will extend through May 1.

Of interest to the homemakers is the International Day program to be presented March 22 from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Farm Bureau auditorium in Edwardsville. Professor Tidball of Greenville College will present a travelogue on Canada. It was noted Mrs. Brinkmeyer is attending the FHEF in Urbana-Champaign this week and will report on the session at the next meeting. The annual session is set for April 30 in Highland with Dr. Hastings of Springfield slated as the featured speaker. He is a Baptist minister who writes articles for a Springfield newspaper as well as other articles for the media, the chairman said.

Plans were also finalized for the District meeting scheduled for May 1 at Hope Lutheran Church. Cost of tickets will be $3.50 per person and guests are invited to attend by reservation from a home extension member.

Craft Chairman Helen Roessner and Helena Miller reported on the star hoop project to be taught at a later date.

Prizes for the day went to Mrs. Brinkmeyer, Genevieve McCombs and Lucille Sackett.

Madison secretaries hear Julia Marzluf

Julie Marzluf, a representative from the Granite City School of Beauty Culture was the guest speaker at a monthly meeting of the Madison Chapter of Future Secretaries, held at the school.

She was accompanied by two of her students, Sherry O'Dell and Rosemary Echols who spoke on suggestions on how to select hair styles, cosmetics and clothing to match their individual features. One important factor in caring for one's complexion is to make sure all makeup is removed from the skin in the cleansing process, they explained. Books displaying the latest styles were distributed to each member to observe and samples of various types of shampoo were given to the chapter members.

Mrs. Marzluf used her students as models as she demonstrated the latest styles of dress, cosmetics, correct sitting position, how to walk and how to use the first impression as a door opener for future job considerations.

She concluded her presentation by answering questions for the members.

Five chapter members will attend the national meeting in St. Louis and return to present the highlights of the Missouri session at the next meeting, it was announced.

District Garden Club meeting set

Mrs. Clifford Mang, 2630 Edison Ave., entertained the Garden Study Club in her home and served a dessert luncheon to seven members prior to the business session.

It was announced the annual meeting of the District V Garden Clubs of Illinois will be held at Holiday Shores in Edwardsville on March 22 and the guest speaker will be Lowell Patterson, state forester from the Shawnee National Park.

Also a plant sale is scheduled for May 15 at the home of Mrs. Norma Crenshaw, and the members agreed to plant a tree on Arbor Day in April.

The meeting ended with all giving the conservation pledge in unison and answering roll call with the name of a biennial plant.

President Margaret Huessman conducted the session. She said a board of directors meeting of District V Garden Clubs was to be held today at 10 a.m. at the Rascals Restaurant in Collinsville.

Mrs. Crenshaw spoke on forced blooms of pussy willow plants and the program was on moving plants outdoors with information taken from an article taken from the horticulture magazine.

DeMolay Mother's Club to host district meet

The DeMolay Mother's Club will host the district meeting of DeMolays at 7 p.m. on March 20 at the Masonic Temple, 20th Street and DeMar Avenue, according to Debbie Pritchett, club president.

She also announced the club members and their families will attend Obligatory Church Sunday at Good Shepherd United Methodist Church, 3025 National Ave., as a group at the invitation of Neal Mize of the DeMolays. Those attending are to meet at the church at 9:45 a.m. and enter as a body for the 10 a.m. service.

Mize will be installed as master counselor in a public ceremony on March 31 at the Masonic Temple to begin at 7 p.m. Mother's Club members will serve refreshments at the ceremonial, the president added.

The meeting opened with Mrs. Pritchett introducing a new member, Mrs. Marilyn Bodman, mother of a new initiate, Eddie Bodman, and DeMolay Sweetheart Beth Bodman.

All repeated the pledge allegiance followed by Ginny Coffer offering the Mother's Prayer.

Charlie Meyer, advisor for the James Stuart Chapter, spoke on the recent chili supper and both he and the president thanked all who donated desserts, white elephant items and volunteered their time or transportation.

Mrs. Jo Meyer, Mrs. Bodman and Mrs. Mary Stuart each reviewed their trip to the Ritual Weekend Workshop at Springfield, Ill., and reported on a successful silent auction with the proceeds donated to the Merit Award Fund.

The president explained three boys, Eric Smith, Keith Payne and Ralph McKinney, placed second and won prizes in the competition. McKinney also placed second in the Flower Talk contest.

Hostesses for the evening, Charlotte Mize, Ruby Sullivan and Ginny Coffer served refreshments to those mentioned and to Mary Church, Sharon Gray, Hilda Few, Donna Mueller, Martha Simpson, Verna Stuart, Pat Torgerson and Beth Bodman.

The meeting closed with the Mother's Creed. The next meeting is set for 7 p.m. on April 3, the president said.

Office Personnel plans 'Bosses Night'

The Granite City Association of Office Personnel held a monthly meeting at the Granite City Senior High School, with President Elect Mary Hudson presiding, in the absence of President Betty Williams. Barbara Schreiber substituted as secretary for Dorothy Lukert.

A short business meeting was held and members were informed that Thomas Noth, Data-Processing administrator, was not chosen as the state's Administrator of the Year at the state level, but was unanimously selected by the local organization to be their representative. A portfolio had been compiled by Pat Uzunoff and Berta Millian depicting Noth's achievements over the years, and also letters of recommendation from his friends and business associates.

A fifty-dollar check from the association will be presented to Carol Denise Cooper, business student, who was selected from the high school on the recommendation of business teacher, Mrs. Betty Dumont, as the association's candidate for the Marion T. Woods Award that is given by the State Association of Educational Personnel to an outstanding business student.

Information on the opening meeting hosted by the State Association that is to be held in Harvey, Ill., in early April was reported by Lucille Caban, who has been nominated as one of the candidates for Director South. She has attended numerous state meetings and has held the office of president, among others, for the organization. Attending the state meeting along with Mrs. Caban are Frieda Andrews, Betty Williams, and Arlene Haldeman.

Bosses' Night will be held this year at Rusty's Restaurant, on March 29th and is an annual event held by the organization to honor their bosses. Chairmen will be Marge Burdge, secretary to Mr. Kraus; and Barb Hediger, secretary to Mr. B. J. Davis.

As a remembrance from the secretaries, Evelyn Gizio, who has recently retired from the district, was given a charm inscribed with "A Date to Remember" and was presented by Wanda Page. Also given to Evelyn by a representative of the union, Wanda Page, was the traditional bell which is presented to union members retiring.

Irene Williams, historian, took pictures of the meeting, and also passed around pictures of previous meetings.

Nominating committee, appointed to select candidates for offices for the next year, were Irene Hatcher, chairman; Mary Hudson, Priscilla Consiglio, Annette Landman, and Alice Campbell. Auditing committee appointed are Wanda Page, Nancy Rosales, and Phyllis Pickler.

Entertainment portion of the meeting was "candy making" and was demonstrated by Mary Groshong and Jean Maxwell, who had different molds for making candy, such as shamrocks, bunnies, turtles, and others. The candy was distributed as treats for the members present.

Hosting the meeting for the organization were Pat Uzunoff, Betty Williams, Wanda Kutzer and Irene Hatcher. To complement the candy treat, a variety of dips were served along with cheese balls and crackers, coffee and tea.

Members present other than those mentioned above were June Schneider, Zoe Mitchell, Marcella Pilcher, Millie Chandler, Betty Harris, Beth Spengler, Marge King, Helen Favier, Allison Smith, Arlene Smith, Candy Kavula.

Luke 12:31... "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and all these other things shall be added unto you."

Many people are worried about the economy. They are concerned about their jobs and what they will do about tomorrow. It is true there are many things that we could be concerned about. The world around us is in a turmoil. It seems everyday the news gets worse. We wonder where it will all end.

Yet, if you are a child of God, born again through His spirit, you need not worry. The Bible teaches us that if we put our spiritual welfare first and be concerned about pleasing God in all things, He will take care of everything else for us. We can rest in Jesus, knowing that He will keep His Word. So, if you must be concerned about something, let it be whether or not you are living a life that is pleasing to God. When we live the life that is pleasing to God, we can leave everything else to Him, for He knows what you have need of.

Start trusting Him. Today.

The "best car" trophy in the annual pinewood derby contest, sponsored by Cub Scout Pack Seven of St. Joseph Catholic Church, was awarded to Jason Stiles, following the competition held in the church basement.

Winners in the eight year old category were, Adam Barr, first, Brian Lomax, second and Gracie Mendoza, third.

Nine year old winners included Josh Leach, first, Keny Atkins, second, and Ronny Buecker, third.

Webelos winners were, Greg Obucina, first, Jason Ellis, second and Andy Hommert, third.

All the winners from each division will participate in a race scheduled for Saturday, March 17, at the Chouteau Township Hall.

Each scout who participated in the event were given ribbons.

Area Girl Scouts celebrate 72nd anniversary this week

Girl Scouts across the nation are celebrating the 72nd anniversary of the scouting movement, this week, by participating in various activities planned by each individual troop.

Today's Girl Scout is involved in a new and busy program much different than the initial troops experienced.

The River Bluffs Girl Scout Council notes that scouts can now study aerospace technology, mountain climbing or more down-to-earth pursuits like camping and group sports.

"Perhaps the best part about the new world a girl finds in Girl Scouting is the opportunity to share her delight of discovery with others."

Girl Scout activities encourage friendship and teamwork and foster global awareness and understanding that link girls across the street or across the ocean. By taking an active part in serving her community a girl scout learns how local concerns may affect the world at large, and how she may contribute to finding solutions," the council explained.

"The world of Girl Scouting isn't just for girls. Women and men who serve as adult volunteers discover that link girls across the street or across the ocean. By taking an active part in serving her community a girl scout learns how local concerns may affect the world at large, and how she may contribute to finding solutions," the council explained.

Cub Scout Pack 96 hosts Blue and Gold dinner

The Maryville School gymnasium was the scene of the annual blue and gold banquet of Cub Scout Pack 96. Tables were decorated in colorful streamers, arrow name cards, and hand-made flower arrangements at each mother's place setting. The potluck banquet began with the Webelos flag ceremony, followed by the invocation given by the Rev. Jerry Harris.

After the meal, introductions of special guests attending included Leroy Stark from the Boy Scouts Council, Commissioner Pat Foote and her husband Richard, Don Lane from Boy Scout Troop 46, and Richard Hull, scout coordinator.

Recognition was also given to all of the leaders and helpers for the past year. Stark and Lane each spoke of the ever increasing brotherhood of working together with boys and their parents today and in future. Entertainment included a song "Cubbing in the Morning" by Den One, followed by a play by the Webelos. The boys were specially commended because they wrote the parts, made their own scenery, which was a castle with a working drawbridge, and hand painted all their costumes.

Leroy Stark then gave special commendation to David Partney and Michael Harris for actions in which they demonstrated the "be prepared" tradition of scouting.

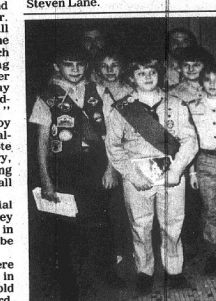

Pinewood derby trophies were given to each of the three winners in the eight, nine and ten year old levels by Cubmaster Tom Bousharden. Eight year old winners: first-Lonnie Bettis, second-Bryan Reed, third-Mike Corrado. Nine year olds: first-Billy Clark, second-Joe Bousharden, third-Danny Thomas. Ten year olds: first-James Holmes, second-Mike Clark, third-Jason Haffman. Denner tabs were received by David Costello, Danny Thomas, Lonnie Bettis, Matt Gordon and David Partney.

Twenty nine boys earned the following awards: Jeff Boyer, Billy and Danny Clark Wolf badge, one gold arrow, Tim Bryan, one gold arrow, Jason Millap, one gold arrow, three silver; Mike Harris and Andy Richards-one gold, six silver; Lonnie Bettis-two silver; Chris Haffman and Eric Miner-two silver; David Partney and Stephen O'Toole-five silver.

A Bear Badge was presented to Chris Patterson and one year service stars to David Costello, Ryan

King and Sam Fowler. Jason Nemeth earned the Bobcat Badge and the Webelos artist pin, Joey Bousharden, Mike Clark, Ryan Cristler, Garren Gann, James Holmes, Mike Mathews, Brian and Sean Paterson, Nathan McClain, Chris Martinez and Brad O'Neill were presented the Webelos badge and artist pin. Brian Henry earned the artist award.

A bouquet of fresh flowers, used as the main table centerpiece, was given as the evening prize. The closing ceremony was conducted by Lonnie Bettis and Webelos Den Chief, Steven Lane.

McGuire-Richards

Miss Kelly Dawn Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Margie Richards, 16 Blue Spruce Court, and Steven Douglas McGuire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence (Viola) McGuire, Rural Route Three, Carrollton, Ill., were united in marriage on Feb. 4 at St. Boniface Catholic Church in Edwardsville.

The Rev. Michael Inyart officiated at the 7 o'clock evening ceremony. Nuptial selections were furnished by Steve Myers and Mike Mullink who also played guitars. Other soloists were Deanna, Denise, and Chris Beiermann and Bill Galezynski.

Immediately following the service a reception was held for 300 guests at the Edwardsville American Legion Hall.

Mrs. Kathy McGuire, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids included Debbie Schuetzgecker, sister of the groom, Donna Burnett, sister of the bride, Karla Stawar, Glenda Cox, and Jan Beiermann.

Heather Justice and Brian Ford, a cousin of the groom, served as flower girl and ring bearer, respectively.

The groom chose Ryan Riechman as best man. Rick Kraut, Bob Gillingham, Mark Fraley, Charles Schuetzgecker, brother-in-law of the groom, and John Henkhaus, a cousin of the groom, Kelly Graham and Kevin Wagner, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Amy McGuire, a niece of the bride, and Patsy McGuire, a sister of the groom, distributed rice packets.

A 1983 graduate of Granite City High School North, the bride is presently attending Lewis and Clark Community College.

The groom was graduated from Carrollton High School in 1982 and is attending Lewis and Clark College. He also is self employed on the family farm.

The newlywed couple resides in Carrollton, Ill.

TV FILM SHOWING OF SENIOR RECOGNITION

A film taken for television showing of the Senior Recognition of cheer leaders, flags, rifles and Pom Pon squads and basketball players at Granite City High School will be shown on three days beginning on Friday.

The initial airing is set for 7 p.m. Friday, March 16; Saturday, March 17, at 9:30 a.m. and Sunday, March 18, at 7 p.m. on Channel 1-22.

Weddings

Barks-Conway

Ina Conway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jewell (Nellie) Fleetwood, Granite City, and Raymond Barks Sr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond (June) Barks of Missouri, were married, Feb. 14, at the Pentecostal Church of God, 24th Street and Bromley Avenue.

The bride was escorted by her father, Jewell Fleetwood, to the altar where the Rev. Gillingham performed the ceremony. Nuptial selections, "Amazing Grace," "Showers of Blessings," and "Love Lifted Me," were played by organist, Mrs. O'Guinn.

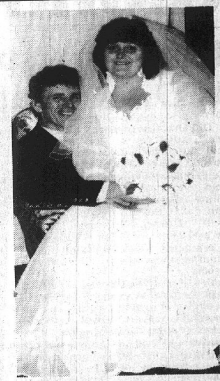

Tina Fleetwood served as honor attendant with bridesmaids, Robin Fleetwood and Tammy Carver.

The groom chose Mike Ruck as best man and Richard and Vernon Fleetwood, were groomsmen.

Seating the guests were Marco Donaldson, Joe Fernandez, and Earl Bossier.

Raymond Barks Jr., only son of the couple, was the ring bearer.

Lisa Ybarra presided over the guest book at the church and later at the reception held in the home of the bride's parents. Another reception was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fleetwood, a brother and sister-in-law of the bride, assisted by friends of the newlywed couple. Among the guests attending the wedding was a grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Pearl Hunt, who is 80 years of age and lives in Florida.

Anderson-Rea

An out of town wedding of interest here was that of Miss Rhonda Jean Rea and David K. Anderson at 7 p.m., Feb. 25, at Dayspring Church in Oklahoma City, Okla. The Rev. James Thomas officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald L. Rea of Nashville, and the Rev. and Mrs. Bill Anderson, missionaries to Davao City, Philippines. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Estes Dickey of Granite City.

Bridget Renee Jones served as honor attendant and bridesmaids included, Sherry Rea and Janice Lillard.

The groom chose Curtis Tolson, as best man, and Daniel Anderson and Charles Morgan as groomsmen. Seating the guests were Michael Rea and Mike Atchley.

A graduate of Jerseyville High School and Patricia Stevens Carver School, the bride also attended Central Bible College in Springfield, Mo. She is employed by Pristage Interiors.

The groom is a graduate of Classen High School, Oklahoma City, and is working with Smith, Roberts and Associates. The couple is now living in Oklahoma City, after a honeymoon in Nassau.

History of submarines is DAR Chapter topic

The Drusilla Andrews Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held its March meeting in the Chimney Room of the Burns Cafeteria with eleven members present.

The regent, Mrs. Sandra Wilkinson, called the meeting to order and Mrs. Emma Schoen, acting chaplain, led the opening ceremonies, followed by the pledge of allegiance and the American's Creed.

Mrs. Janet Wilson read the President General's message and Mrs. Georgia Engelke gave an informative report about national defense topics. Secretary, Mrs. Linda Koenig, read the minutes of the previous meeting and correspondence including a thank you note from the Kate Duncan School for a subscription to the National Geographic World, a note from member Mary Candler of Shipman and a letter from Mrs. Sarah King, president general of the NSDAR.

The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Florence Simpson and Mrs. Schoen presented current DAR topics. Three members, Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Schoen, and Mrs. Wilson will be attending the DAR Illinois State Conference in Decatur this month, it was noted.

Mrs. Koenig presented a program on the history of submarines. She traced their history from the first descent under the water by Alexander the Great, in a glass barrel, in the period 356-323 B. C. The first American use of a submarine was during the revolutionary war when David Bushnell's "Turtle," attempted to place a time bomb on the hull of the British HMS Eagle.

The first enemy vessel sank under combat conditions was the Confederate "Hunley" which sank the Union frigate Housatonic during the Civil War. Clara Barton, founder of the Red Cross, was the first woman to submerge in a submarine.

In time of peace, submarines have been used to gather scientific information that has greatly increased our understanding of our underwater world, Mrs. Koenig concluded.

Other members in attendance were Ethel Beeler, Margaret Bell, Mae McCormick, Mildred McCormick and Florence Woodward.

Bay View Club elects officers

Mrs. Margaret Aronovitz was elected to serve as president of the Bay View Reading Club for the forthcoming year, at a club meeting hosted at The Den, last week.

Others elected include: Dorothy Buente, vice president; Bette Rea, secretary; and Dorothy McCauley, treasurer.

After the lunch hour a program on Virginia Alice Cottey was presented by Mrs. Rea and Mrs. Buente. Others attending were: Ruth Huxel, Marie Klein, A. E. Krumsek, Frances Lynch, Bess Louis and Ver-na Stuart. Mrs. Stuart invited the club members to meet in her home for the April gathering.

Five Star Club hears retired pharmacist

"Everything You Wanted To Know About Drugs But Were Afraid To Ask" was the subject of Matt Sarich, retired pharmacist and lecturer from Southern Illinois University as he spoke to the Five Star Club of Granite City Trust and Savings Bank.

He warned that you should always tell your doctor if you are taking any drugs he did not prescribe for you. Sixty five years of age and older is the fastest growing segment of the nations population. A very large percentage of them take three or more drugs a day not including over the counter items. Many drugs counteract others to the extent that no benefit is gained by consumption. Also many drugs react to others and create a negative condition.

Ask your doctor or pharmacist, "What is the drug, what does it do? How long should you take it?" Be sure to take any medicine the prescribed length of time. Your body is temple you know more about it than anyone else, your doctor may need you to describe it to him before he can determine your ailment, the speaker said. Give your medicine time to work. As you age your metabolism slows down, your liver and kidneys decrease in size to the extent that it takes your body longer to absorb drugs.

His advice to senior citizens is to stay active in both body and mind, but don't over exert. Exercise, proper food and plenty of liquids is a very good recipe for health.

The monthly meeting was held at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church. Emylee Alford club coordinator served refreshments about 50 members in attendance.

Party honors Nicole Turcott

Nicole Turcott was honored on her first birthday with a party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John (Sandy) Turcott, in their home. A circus theme was used in the table appointments and for the decorated cake.

Guests included Dustin Kincy, Sarah and Amy Messick, Harmony Gregory, Jacklyn White, Steven Bishop Jr., Kevin VanContra, Nickki and Toni Hull, Jacqueline Hackel, the honorees grandmother, Mildred Turcott, and Dana Fair and Rhea Kincy.

CREATIVE WOMEN TO MEET MONDAY NIGHT

A meeting of the Creative Women Unit, Homemakers Extension, will be held at 7 p.m. Monday, March 19, in the home of Joanna Spencer, 3204 Newell Drive.

The lesson for the night will be on "Inset Control," according to the hostess.

Preceptor Chapter to collect eye glasses

Mrs. Linda Koenig, service chairman for Preceptor Beta Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, reviewed arrangements to collect used eye glasses at a meeting of the group, held in the home of Mrs. Carolyn Walsh.

All glasses collected will be forwarded to Lions Club, she added. Mrs. Carolyn Cathey, club treasurer, served as president pro tem for the session. Reports were given by Mrs. B. J. Jones and Mrs. Cathey.

Mrs. Jones read a communication from the sorority international office concerning a plan to meet new residents and make them acquainted with the local Chamber of Commerce or other organizations to help them become settled in new surroundings. She also read a note of appreciation from Alpha Center for the chapter's latest donation.

Miss Marilyn Lumpkins announced the next meeting will be held in the home of Donna Lane and guests will be invited to attend.

Mrs. Koenig gave a "On the Shelf" program, relating to the "Tree in Land of Goshen" a story of a large elm tree on the grounds of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, written by Rev. David Bradley. According to his account the tree was planted in the early 1800's and survived until 1963 when it was cut into several pieces. One piece of the tree is at SIUE, another at the Madison County Historical Society and another in the Illinois State Museum at Springfield.

At the time it was cut the tree reached 77 feet, and the charcoal stump is now located at SIU Alton with a bronze plaque installed noting it as a work of art, the speaker explained.

Illinois Bell managers to speak at BPW Club meeting

Breaking-up the Bell System has affected millions of phone users in large and small ways. Changes caused by the telecommunications revolution will be discussed by Illinois Bell Managers Mary McCormick and Jack Bailey at the Wednesday, March 21, meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club at 6:30 p.m., at Englebert Hall, Madison.

Mrs. McCormick and Mr. Bailey will explain the forces which brought about the changes, differences the changes will make to consumers and the outlook for the future.

Mrs. McCormick is an 18-year employee of Illinois Bell and is now serving as Community Relations Manager for Metro East area. All of her Illinois Bell experience has been in customer service.

Bailey is a 36-year employee of Illinois Bell with experience in a variety of installation and maintenance positions, and is currently involved in long range planning of telephone facilities.

Mrs. Rosalie Stern, chairman of the program committee, announces the dinner cost is $6.50 and reservations may be made by calling her at 877-8800 or 452-2777 (evening).

The business meeting will be a closed session for members only and will include election of officers for the forthcoming year, Mrs. Stern added.

Elkettes enroll new members

The Elkettes Club of officers formally enrolled four new members, Debbie Economy, Licia Milankovic, Lynda Becker and Dolores Polson, during its meeting, held last week in the rathskeller of the lodge.

President Ruth Bischof presided over the session with the opening

Mrs. Mary French hosts past matrons

Mrs. Mary French, newly elected president of the Past Matrons Club of Granite Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, entertained the group in her home as plans were finalized for an April 7 dinner meeting.

The event will be held at Burn's Cafeteria to honor Worthy Matron Betty Kelso and Worthy Patron Neal Kelso. All past matrons and past patrons are invited to attend, she added.

Mrs. French opened the session with a series of Biblical quotations followed by reports submitted by Varsing Throne and the chairman of the sunshine committee.

Listed as being in ill health were, Florence Spohr, John DeHart, and Mary Bilibrey.

Games were played after the meeting and prizes won by Virginia John, Hulda Griffith, Frances Williams and Varsing Throne. Others present were Arline Fox, Bess Henley, Donna Boyer, Donna Kagy, Hannah Kleinschmidt, and Della Aulabaugh.

The meeting adjourned by repeating the Mispah in unison.

and closing prayer offered by Kathryn Edmonds.

Reports were submitted by Dorothy Sheppard and Helen Todoff, who announced member ship dues are now being collected. Mrs. Vesta Campbell noted a member, Phyllis Grimm, is hospitalized.

The club clown unit will perform on April 1 from 1:30 to 3 p.m. at the Harold Brown Recreation Center, it was announced, and the members agreed to decorate a float to be entered in the annual Auld Shrine's parade. The president requested all members assist with the preparations.

An election of officers was also held with Margaret Biescur named president for the forthcoming year, Elsie Rodell, vice president, Pat Whaley, treasurer, Delores Yates, recording secretary, Mary Hoffman, corresponding secretary, Theresa Harding, membership, Helen Toncoff, guard, Marian Mertz, chaplain and trustees, Ruth Bischof, Virginia Johns and Marge Hilker.

Mike King, exalted ruler of the Elks, addressed the group and extended appreciation for their assistance with all activities relative to the organization.

He also noted there is to be a dance at the lodge on March 24.

Mrs. Bischof expressed her appreciation to members and officers for their help during her year in office.

Refreshments were served by Elmina Trachel and Ruth Geroff to 44 members. A special prize went to Julia Barnes and other awards went to Dean Graf, Bess Weiss, Helen Toncoff, Dolores Polson, Kathryn Edmonds, Wilma Russell, Mildred Branding, Elmina Trachel and Lorraine Williams.

Madison Jr. Service hosts special dinner

Madison Junior Service Club hosted a dinner served by Schuck's at the Madison Recreation Center. There were over 100 people served and entertained by Morgan Hatch, television personality, and now representative of Schuck's Co.

Nancy Sumac and Toni Shabo served as chairman of the fund raising event and noted the project netted $300 which will be donated to the March of Dimes.

Other entertainment was provided by the A.B.C. Craft Store in Collinsville, who gave a demonstration on stenciling.

Former Madison resident retires after 45 years as a grocer

Charlie Jurjevich, a former Madison resident, recently retired after 45 years of operating Charlie's IGA Market in South Roxana.

Jurjevich and his wife, Eva, were honored earlier this month with a public reception at the South Roxana Dad's Club.

JURJEVICH started in the business in 1933, when he moved from Madison to Wood River to work as a stockboy and a buyer at Vidakovich's grocery store in Wood River.

In 1937, Jurjevich married Eva and a year later, the Vidakoviches bought the South Roxana Store. The Jurjeviches went to the store to manage it and went on to buy the establishment in 1938.

In the early days, South Roxana was a relatively small town, but as the Shell Oil Refinery grew, so did South Roxana. And Charlie's IGA store soon expanded its line of goods. DURING THEIR years as grocers, the Jurjeviches began to become a part of the South Roxana community, as their store became a landmark.

They lived in a three-room apartment behind the store for 20 years. It was there that they raised their children, Charles Jr. and Terry.

Throughout their 45 years in service, the Jurjeviches never took a vacation. They worked from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m., six days a week.

THE STORE saw many changes through the years, including its role in the community. It was a place to pay utility bills and a place where one could receive Western Union telegrams during World War II.

After the war, Jurjevich's store was installed with an emergency fire phone from the South Roxana Fire Department. When someone would call in a fire, Jurjevich would run across the street to the firehouse and pull the siren button to alert the volunteer firefighters.

While waiting for the volunteers to arrive, Jurjevich would start up the fire engine and, if only a few volunteers showed up, he would even drive the fire truck himself.

BEFORE PHONES became common in the community, the Jurjeviches would go door to door in the neighborhood, taking orders from customers. The orders would then be taken back to the store, where they were bagged and delivered back to the customer.

During the 60s, when the workers at the Shell Company staged a long strike, the store was one of the few places that extended credit to the employees. The store still extends credit today.

Since the Jurjeviches' retirement, the store has been sold to Roxana Foods and the Jurjeviches are spending a lot more time at home.

Lecture studies 'Cahokia Woodhenge'

Cahokia Mounds Museum Society will present a lecture, "Cahokia Woodhenge: A Sun Calendar," by Dr. Warren Wittry, Saturday, March 17, from 1 to 3 p.m., at the Theater Building at Cahokia Mounds Historic Site, 7850 Collinsville Road. The lecture is open to the public and admission is free.

Woodhenge is a solar observatory and calendar. It consisted of a circle of evenly spaced upright cedar logs with a central observation post and was aligned with the cardinal points and the rising sun on the first days of spring, summer, fall and winter. Dr. Wittry will discuss his discovery and the basic principles of archaeo-astronomy as they relate to the Cahokia Woodhenge. For more information, interested persons may call 344-5268.

Statistics indicate that the average home in the United States now costs approximately $80,000. If the buyer pays 20% down on a home in this price range, this will result in a monthly payment of more than $800 at today's interest rates if taxes and insurance are escrowed by the lending institution. To be able to afford this type of monthly payment, the home buyer would have to earn a salary of approximately $80,000 per year. Only 2% of the American population is in this salary range.

What these statistics indicate is that the average wage earner may have been squeezed out of the home buying market if he plans to seek financing at a conventional lending institution. There is, however, another alternative to conventional financing. A seller and buyer can agree to a sale of real estate pursuant to a Bond for Deed, which is also known as a Contract for Deed.

When a seller of real estate agrees to sell his property Bond for Deed, he is agreeing to accept payments from the buyer over a period of time. This type of arrangement allows the parties to bypass a lending institution for the financing of the sale. One advantage to a Bond for Deed sale is that it may allow the buyer to get a better interest rate from the seller than would be available from a lending institution. This, of course, would mean a smaller monthly payment.

There are two points which the buyer in this type of transaction should note. With conventional financing through a Bank or Savings and Loan, the buyer immediately obtains a deed to his property subject to a mortgage. With a Bond for Deed transaction, however, the buyer is not given a deed to the property by the seller until the end of the payment period. Secondly, the buyer should be aware that if he ever defaults in his payments, he stands to lose all of his equity in the property.

In a recent case, the Bond for Deed purchaser paid $10,000 down toward the purchase of a home in Belleville. He then made his regular monthly payments on a timely basis for two years. Subsequently, he lost his job and stopped making his monthly house payment. When he fell six months behind, the seller returned to court and obtained a judgment for possession of the home. The buyer here lost all monies he had in the home, and the property reverted to the seller.

Bids sought for I-270 resurfacing

Bids for resurfacing 2.98 miles of Interstate 270 between the Chain of Rocks Canal and Route 111 north of Granite City will be opened Friday, March 23, State Rep. Sam Wolf (D-Granite City) announced this week.

Wolf said the estimated cost of the work is $1,980,000, which includes miscellaneous electrical work, in addition to the resurfacing.

CHARGED WITH BATTERY

James Sloan, 40, of 2233 Washington Ave., was arrested and charged with battery, during the weekend after Pamela Bishop of Granite City told officers he struck her in the face several times and broke a window in her auto. Sloan also claimed ownership of the vehicle, so no charges were filed on auto damage until the ownership can be verified, according to police. Sloan was released at 2:45 p.m. on $52 cash bail.

Church Activities

SILVER ANNIVERSARY of the West 22nd Street Baptist Church is celebrated with a unique two section decorated cake and special services held in the sanctuary and fellowship hall. The Rev. Louis Thiele, pastor, led the congregation in the observance.

Baptist Church marks 25th anniversary

The West 22nd Street Baptist Church of Granite City, celebrated its 25th anniversary as an organized church on Sunday, March 4, with the Rev. Louis Thiele, pastor, conducting the special services.

This church was a mission formed by the Second Baptist Church and was organized on March 1, 1859. The local church has sponsored two missions itself, one that is now the New Hope Baptist Church and the other, the Hillside Baptist Mission.

To open the event, a memorial service for two of the church pastors was held. The Rev. Rudolph Noel, pastored the church from September 1961 until February 1980, and the Rev. Leroy Geiger served as minister for the congregation from November 1973 until April 1978.

During the ministry at the local church nine pastors have served there.

Special speakers for the affair included the Rev. W. L. Showers, the Rev. Thomas Bray, the Rev. Fred Holst and Rev. Thiele. There also was gospel singing planned throughout the services.

A noon and evening meal was also served to the members, friends and guests.

St. Patrick Day dance set Saturday at St. Elizabeth

The annual St. Patrick's Day dance will be held at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, Pontoon and Johnson roads on Saturday, March 17, in the parish hall from 8 to 12 p.m.

Music for dancing will be provided by the Starlighters and tickets may be purchased at the door for $8 per couple.

The announcement of the event was made at the Ladies' Sodality meeting conducted by Linda Logan, president.

Mrs. Logan also announced Bishop Daniel Ryan of the Springfield Diocese, will visit St. Elizabeth Church for confirmation on March 29 and also for the dedication, on the same day, of the Noah's Ark Day Care Center at the church.

A fish fry project held each Friday from 4 to 7 p.m. will continue in the school cafeteria during the Lenten season, the president added.

During the meeting special honors were accorded to Martha Kozusko who is a 30-year member of the quilters at the church.

The quilt of the month went to Leland Jones and the madonna award was given to Mrs. Pam Ames. First grade mothers were hostesses for the session and served sandwiches and salads during the social hour. The next meeting will be on April 27.

Rev. Dickson Beal speaker at CWF general meeting

The Rev. Dickson Beal, minister of the Southern Illinois University's Religious Center, was the guest speaker on "Peace with Justice" at the Central Christian Women's Fellowship general meeting, last week. Slides were shown on nuclear energy, armament, and nuclear results, followed by discussion on "What we can do as Christians."

Devotions were led by Madge Hanson, and president, Doris Edwards opened the meeting with the Christian Women's Fellowship prayer. Each circle chairman gave their reports of attendance, programs, forthcoming projects, calls made and cards sent to the shut-ins.

Peggy Gibbons, C.W.F. representative, spoke on the World Day of Prayer, a rummage sale for Project Help at St. Peter's United Church of Christ, and the Friends and Learning project. Flora Mae Lindsey, Don and Lena Seizer are representatives from Central Christian Church's C.W.F., the president noted.

Chairman for a fund raising project, Gayla Stewart, announced a Schnucks Luncheon, will be held on March 28 at 11:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Tickets can be obtained from any member, at a cost of $2.

Nominating committee, Myra Parrish, Velma Gruen, and Lucretia Durbin, will present a slate of officers for an election of new officers at the April meeting. Installation is set for June.

C.W.F. Assembly will be held at the Affton Christian Church, Affton, Mo., March 27, and several delegates plan to represent the local C.W.F., Mrs. Edwards said.

Mrs. Edwards urged the members to attend the Easter Lenten services every Wednesday at the three participating churches, St. Peter's and St. John's United Church of Christ, and Central Christian, (Disciple of Christ).

A new class is being formed by Mrs. Edwards, "P.M.S.", physical, mental and spiritual. The sessions will be every Tuesday evening, 7 p.m. in the Terrace Room of the church. The sessions are designed to feel better about your half. Modified aerobics, Yoga and Christian meditations are part of the program. The sessions are to relieve stress and daily tensions, she explained. Others assisting in the project are Lenu Seltzer, Helen Gages, and Pam Rutledge.

The evening concluded with refreshments and fellowship. Hostesses were members of the Dorcas Circle.

The next General C.W.F. meeting will be April 5th, featuring a program, "Do My Actions Tell you who I Am," led by Marie Gordon and Beth Spengler and worship by Mildred Collins.

Nameoki Presbyterian active during Lent

"We are taking a fresh look at the life and teaching of Jesus Christ in our morning worship services during Lent," revealed the Rev. Don F. Pierson, pastor of the Nameoki Presbyterian Church. "The 'Kingdom of God' is a recurring phrase in our Lord's ministry," he added, "and we will be looking at this in Sunday's message."

An adult coffee hour which begins at 9:30 a.m. is involved in a study-discussion of the churches in the Book of Revelation. "Both of these events are offered with an invitation to those looking for a church home in our community," Pastor Pierson explained.

The Windjammer Mariners, an adult fellowship group, will install all Billie as Skippers this Saturday at 6:30 p.m. Edna and Francis Cease are the hosts for this monthly potluck fellowship occasion. The potluck will hold a monthly potluck on Saturday, March 24th, at 6:30 p.m. A special program and invitation is being directed to the large number of young adults associated with the congregation, a spokesman said.

"A Spring Fling" for the adults of the Nameoki Presbyterian is slated for Thursday, March 22nd. Adults are invited to meet at the church at 9 a.m. The group will take in the Spring Flower Show at Shaw's Garden, then enjoy a "Dutzy treat" luncheon. In the afternoon, they will visit the Old Court House in downtown St. Louis to view the display of early Presbyterian pioneers and churches in the area.

The Junior and Senior Highs of the Church are joining with the young people of the Mitchell Presbyterian Church each Sunday at 7 p.m. A look at the facets of worship is being followed by an informal workshop. The combined group will be providing a Palm Sunday evening worship experience for the members and friends of the two congregations at the Nameoki Presbyterian Church.

An invitation to share in the world-famous Passion Play will be offered to the public. Cost of the play and transportation is $20 per person. Reservations are being accepted by Ruby Rhine at 381-3471.

Methodist Bicentennial services

All Methodist-related churches of the area are conducting united bicentennial services for five Sunday evenings during Lent. Churches included are the six United Methodist Churches of Granite City, Madison and Venice, the Bethel AME Church of Venice, and the Central Free Methodist Church in Pontoon Beach.

This united celebration commemorates the 200th birthday of Methodism in America, dating back to the historic Christmas Conference in Baltimore in 1784.

The United Bicentennial Service

this week will be held at 7 p.m. Sunday, March 18, at the Central Free Methodist Church in Pontoon Beach. The speaker for this service will be the Rev. Al Johnson, pastor of the Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Venice.

Central Free Methodist Church is located at the corner of Lake Street and South Street, three blocks south of Pontoon Road, and two blocks west of Highway 111.

Pastor Carroll D. Morris and his congregation invites the public to attend this service.

ONE ACCORD, a gospel singing family from St. Louis, will appear in concert at Grace Baptist Church, 2600 Edwards St., on Sunday, March 18, at the 10:40 a.m. and 7 p.m. services. They have just returned from South Africa where they appeared on nationwide television and also perform on their own cable television program when in this country. The public is invited to attend the services.

College instructors co-author book, receive award

Dr. Charles Corr, professor of philosophical studies at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and his wife, Donna Corr, a nursing instructor at St. Louis Community College Forest Park, are co-authors of a book on Hospice care that was introduced to the public in January of 1982. Since then, "Hospice: Principles & Practice" has been presented the 1984 Book of the Year Award in the Community Health Care Field by "The American Journal of Nursing."

Dr. Corr has written numerous books and articles that relate directly to many different areas in the health care field, including Hospice. The Hospice approach is a distinct and cohesive outlook for assisting human beings at a most stressful time in life. This approach primarily reflects lessons that have been learned in caring for dying persons and their families both before and after death.

DESPITE THE publicity that Hospice has received, this point of view has not always been well understood. In particular, by focusing on its institutionalization, many have missed the central lesson:

Hospice is a philosophy, not a facility. It is an approach to the giving of care, rather than a place in which services are offered.

When the couple was asked why they felt there was a need for this type of book, Dr. Corr answered, "There is so much good literature today, but at times it's difficult to research all the books available — and many times, there are gaps from one area to another. Most of us don't have the time to plow through all the publications made available to us. Our idea was to do the research, organize the good literature, and reprint it as a resource textbook for Hospice caregivers."

Mrs. Corr added that, "most books on Hospice are written in a popular style to appeal to the lay audience, or written in the views of a single Hospice unit, such as Hospice of Marin or the Connecticut Hospice. Both ideas have their good points, for informing and educating particular groups of interested people, she said. "We felt the need for condensing much of the literature in a more comprehensive type textbook, that would cover all the areas, the Hospice caregivers must deal with on a daily basis."

THE CONTENTS of this book presents guidelines for care of dying and chronically ill patients, addressing the complex needs of dying persons, their families and the practitioners attending them.

It covers all areas necessary to assure the effectiveness of a program which responds to the dramatic demands of the terminally ill and their caregivers. Areas such as: Needs and Response - The Hospice Approach; analgesics and polypharmacy; caregiving; bereavement; implementing Hospice principles in various settings, and the Hospice movement.

Each of these five areas are broken down into many different components, with very qualified people documenting in their sphere of expertise. Among the 26 contributors are Cicely Saunders, Colin Murray Parkes, Sylvia Lack, Robert Twycross, Susan Grimsdale, Eric Wilkes and Nina Millett of Hospice of Madison County, who covers the areas social workers must deal with while working with patient's and families.

Granite City Center

GRANITE CITY CENTER (GCC) of Belleville Area College will conduct its first dance Friday, March 16. The Student Advisory Council is sponsoring the St. Patrick's Day dance. The Intramurals Department will conduct a dance contest with a cash prize of $50. Attendance prizes also will be given.

The doors will open at 7:30 p.m. and the band, Horizon, will play from 8 p.m. to midnight. Tickets for the dance are $2.50 and can be purchased from any Student Advisory Council member, in the GCC main office or at the door. The dance will be in the GCC gym, 4950 Maryville Road, Granite City. It is open to the public.

Other Area Colleges

THE FACULTY AND STAFF of McKendree College will participate in a game of basketball against the St. Louis Football Cardinals on Saturday, March 17. The game will feature Otis Anderson, Benny Perrin, Curtis Greer, Neil Lomas and others.

Tickets for the event are $5.50 for adults and $3.50 for students. Persons interested in getting tickets for the game may write to McKendree College, Public Relations Department, 701 College Road, Lebanon, Ill., 62254.

FIVE GRANITE CITY STUDENTS who are freshmen at St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing, received their school caps at a ceremony conducted late last week.

The students include Janet Louise Dobrowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Dobrowski, 1208 Iowa St.; Paula Jean DeRuntz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. DeRuntz, 2154 State St.; Dana Leigh Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett D. Wood, 1 Wilson Park Drive; Kathy Toussaint, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold E. Toussaint, 2554 Westmoreland Dr.; and Deborah Milton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Milton, 2725 Iowa St.

THE NURSE RECRUITER from McKendree College will visit St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Granite City on Friday, March 30, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Nancy Koleson will present information about the college's BSN completion program for registered nurses to hospital employees and to area residents. McKendree offers its nursing program both days and evenings on the main campus in Lebanon, and evenings at Alton Memorial Hospital. Non-nursing courses necessary for the degree are offered evenings at St. Elizabeth's Hospital.

Any registered nurses wishing an unofficial evaluation of previous associate degree or diploma credits may schedule an appointment for that day by calling the college, toll-free in Illinois, 1-800-682-3073, extension 171 or 146. Materials on the program may be obtained without an appointment.

Notice To All Republicans

It is important that you Vote For State's Attorney Don Weber in the Primary. He is the best qualified by far. He is young but has 10 years experience in criminal prosecution. His civil case department is highly successful.

DON WEBER is the only Republican candidate endorsed by every City Chairman and by the Madison County Central Committee. He is definitely the only Republican State's Attorney candidate who can win in November.

DON WEBER is dedicated, hard on crime and corruption, and prosecutes without fear or favor. He has learned the newest in scientific and legal expertise: FBI psychological profiling, computer enhancement, pathology advances, arson science, fiber analysis, etc.

DON WEBER has led his prosecutorial Troops Up Front like General Patton, and has a personal conviction record of 91%. He saved the taxpayers about $400,000 when he stopped the drive for 1-man cells. He cut the cost of operating his Department 49%, yet still gave reasonable raises.

PUNCH OUT CRIME PUNCH NO. 89

GO WITH EXPERIENCE...

WE'RE CELEBRATING
OUR 27th YEAR...

America's Oldest Lawn Spray Company...

We know, as all agronomists know, that the secret to beautiful grass is properly scheduled applications of fertilizer, weed killers to control both grass types (crabgrass) and broadleaf (dandelions-chickweed) weeds and insecticide to control webworms, chinch bugs, etc.

Included in our spray program are applications of SLOW RELEASE NITROGEN that NEVER STOPS FEEDING as long as grass is growing and actually slows down its feeding during periods of low rainfall when it's not needed. If your lawn isn't receiving applications of SLOW RELEASE NITROGEN you're not getting your money's worth.

... THE GREEN LAWN PLAN provides five sprays — early Spring, late Spring, Summer, late Summer, and Fall. It supplies fertilizers just when your lawn needs them. Five broadleaf weed sprays to control dandelion, chickweed, buckhorn, plantain, spurge... Those weeds that seem never to stop coming up from early Spring to late Fall. Crabgrass control in the Spring and insecticide applications in the Summer.

OUR PLAN INCLUDES GRUB CONTROL WITH OFTANOL, THE ONLY CHEMICAL THAT REALLY CONTROLS GRUB.

If some Fall weeds come up after our last weed killer is applied — CALL US — We will apply a #6 Spray — FREE!

OUR PROGRAM CONTINUES YEAR AFTER YEAR — REQUIRES NO CONTRACT AND PROVIDES FOR PAYMENT BY MAIL AFTER EACH APPLICATION FOR AS LONG AS YOU DESIRE AFTER THE FIRST 5 APPLICATIONS. (5% Discount For Pre-Payment.)

HAPPY 16th Michael Voss
LOVE - TRACEY

PRAYER to application: To the Holy Spirit, you who light all roads so that I can obtain my goal, you who give me the divine gift to overcome and forget all evil against me, and that in all instances of my life you are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things and to confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you. Even in spite of all material illusion, I wish to be with you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. Say this prayer for three consecutive days. After three days favor requested will be granted, even if it may appear difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after the favor is granted. Only your initials should appear at the bottom. D.A.G. 26 3 15

PUBLIC NOTICE

Eagles Aerie honors past presidents

Eagles Aerie 1126, 2558 Madison Ave., held a banquet and dance to honor their past presidents, of the organization during the weekend.

The banquet room was decorated in a red, white and blue theme with posters depicting eagles encircling the room. Red, white and blue balls were suspended from the ceiling to represent the "Bell Ringers" recently achieved. The main tables, for the past presidents and their escorts, carried a matching motif with white vases containing red, white and blue flowers.

Randy Odom, Aerie president, introduced the past presidents in attendance, the year they held the office and their escorts which included: James Lipchik, 1940, and Helen, Carl Buehler, 1950, and Angie, Bill Hayes, 1951, and Thelma Wendell, Bill Hemken 1957, 1962, and Norma, Bob Sanders, 1973, and Belores, Walter Rickert, 1980, and Eileen, Dick Brown, 1981, and John Daley, 1982.

Odom announced that Bob Stanton, who had been president three times, for the Aerie, could not attend the banquet because he was representing the Aerie at the zone rally in Lincoln, Ill. In his speech, Odom mentioned that Walter and Eileen Rickert had the honor of being the first husband and wife to be the same time and Carl Buehler was the "Illinois Eagle of the Year" for 1983-1984.

He also gave recognition to the kil-chen committee, who prepared the food for the banquet, and included Chris VonNida, William Barnhart Jr., Kathy Barnhart, Carol Hill, Betty Blackick, and Judy Diak and to the decorating committee, Greg McCall, Harold R. Love, Don and Yvonne Gray.

Harold R. Love, Aerie vice president, stated "I believe recognition should be given to Randy Odom and Chris VonNida who came up with the idea of honoring our past presidents in such a grand manner, and to Randy for the selection of the decorations and layout of the hall for tonight's affair."

Odom presented each of the past presidents with a gavel, engraved with their name and year they held office, followed by the offering of the blessing by Love prior to the serving of the meal.

Music was provided by Rich Langley and the CBC Band, for dancing.

Two charged with burglary attempt

Jerry Wayne Drennan, 23, of 1012 Grand Ave., Madison, and Michael Grant Collier, 27, of 204 Madison Ave., Madison, were charged with attempted burglary and criminal damage to property after police allegedly caught the two men trying to break into cars last weekend.

Officers observed the men crouched down alongside of automobiles in the rear of the Friedman's Furniture and Hardware Building, 421 Madison Ave., Madison.

Upon closer examination, officers noted damage to the door locks and paint surrounding the locks of the cars where the men had been seen.

A mittimus was issued and the men were transferred to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

File three charges in firing of shotgun

Daniel A. Wyatt, 24, of 3906 Kirkpatrick Homes, was arrested there at 2:55 a.m. Tuesday on charges of discharging a shotgun, aggravated assault and reckless conduct.

He pleaded innocent to aggravated assault before Associate Judge Nicholas Byron and was released at 11:50 a.m. Tuesday on $102 bail.

Police seized a 12 gauge semi-automatic shotgun from the apartment and found a spent shell on the ground outside. They alleged confiscating three live shells from the weapon and one from his pocket.

Of the four shells, three were loaded for deer and one for pheasant. Nancy Wyatt, 3906 Kirkpatrick, alleged that a shotgun blast was fired in her direction during an argument. A man, questioned at 4:30 a.m., declined to confirm or deny deflecting the gun barrel when Wyatt allegedly pulled the trigger.

2 ARRESTED ON WARRANTS

Acting on warrants Tuesday night and Wednesday, Granite City police booked Kent D. Warren, 19, of 2303 Ohio Ave. on a March 1 petty theft charge and Larry J. Ryan, 20, of 2223 Edison Ave. on a February allegation of battery.

APARTMENT DAMAGED
Ruth Rife, 2250 State St., reported last week the ceiling, carpeting and box springs and mattress at her home were damaged by an explosion which came from another apartment.

Apartment, manufacturing zoning pleas are endorsed

The Madison County Board will be asked to consider several recommendations of the county's Zoning Board of Appeals when the board meets at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, March 21, at the County Courthouse in Edwardsville.

Among the recommendations is that Floyd D. Foreman Jr. should be granted rezoning of 24 acres in Chouteau Township for construction of apartments. The property is behind Reuter's Little Ranch north of Old Alton Road and south of Interstate 270 in Mitchell. It currently is zoned R-3 for single-family residential use.

The zoning board also is endorsing a request by Astronomical, Inc., a subsidiary of Roberts and Dinah, Inc., for M-2 general manufacturing zoning for 7.2 acres at the company's current location, just east of Route 200 and East Chain of Rocks Road for the manufacture of rock trusses and pre-cut buildings. The property currently is zoned B-4 (wholesale business district).

Roger and Gary Kleffler received the zoning board's endorsement of a request that a special use permit be issued allowing them to place two mobile homes next to an existing mobile home in a flood hazard area on Chouteau Island.

Also endorsed is a request from Thomas D. Miks for a special use permit to place a double wide mobile home at 855a Thorngate Drive, adjacent to Sun 'n Fun, for placement of a mobile home for up to five years, until he builds a future building.

James Savage also has received the zoning board's endorsement for placement of a mobile home on Allen Street in Eagle Park Acres, a portion of Venice Township zoned R-4 for single-family use. It is recommended that the permit be granted for up to five years for the use only of a Savage.

A request from the trustees of the late B.F. Reese for rezoning 27 acres at Route 162 and State 435 from the current agricultural zoning to an M-2 (general manufacturing district) is being held in abeyance pending further study and will not be presented to the county board this month.

sville, Illinois, within 6 months from date of issuance of letters; and any claim not so filed is barred as to the estate inventoried within that period.

Also, copies of claims must be mailed or delivered to the executor-administrator and to the attorney.

Friday morning DeMolays will observe Government Day by being honorary city officials for the morning, and on Saturday, March 24, the DeMolays will hold a car wash at Len's Amoco Service Station, Franklin and Pontoon from 12 to 5:30 p.m. Proceeds from the wash will go to help defray the expenses of sending the 1984 Chapter Sweetheart, Beth Ann Bodnam, and her chaperone to the Illinois DeMolay Conclave in August. The chapter at its March 6 meeting voted to send her to the Conclave, Aug. 16th to 19th, on the campus of Western Illinois University in Macomb, Ill.

Head Start to participate in student food program

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, which has administrative authority for the Head Start Program in Madison County, has announced that the Head Start Program is participating in the Child Care Food Program. This program will provide meals for enrolled children at no separate charge. The university has adopted the United States Department of Agriculture Family Income Guidelines for Free and Reduced Meals for determining eligibility. To be eligible for free food, families of two persons cannot earn more than $8,502; families of three may not earn more than $10,686; families of four can not exceed an income of $12,870, and families of five can not earn more than $15,054. For each additional family member, persons may add $2,184 to the allowed income.

To be eligible for reduced price meals, families of two persons may earn $12,095; families of three can earn $15,207; families of four can have an income of $18,315, and families of five can earn $21,423. For each additional family member, persons may add $3,108 to the allowed income.

For more information about the food program, interested persons may call the Madison County Head Start Program at 1-692-2394.

'Crimes of the Heart' at American Theater, 416 N. Ninth St., St. Louis.
The Pulitzer Prize-winning story by Beth Henley is a tragedy-comedy that concerns a woman who forlornly observes her 30th birthday without a man; a would-be singer who has failed in Hollywood; and an adult "delinquent" out on bail. Performances are 8 p.m. Thursday through Saturday and 7 p.m. on Sunday night. A 2 p.m. matinee will be presented Saturday and Sunday. Prices range from $10.90 to $17.90. Those wishing further information may call 1-314-231-1234.

New instant game awards $100,000

A 24-year old LaSalle woman won $100,000 in the Illinois State Lottery's new instant game "Bankroll" on Monday, the first day the game went on sale. Donette Keeney, a cashier at the Pit Stop in Peru, said she bought her winning ticket because "people ask me how to play the game and I thought I'd play to find out."

The Pit Stop is a lottery agent. Donette plans to be married in May and said her prize is "a great wedding gift."

To play the instant game, a player rubs off six squares on the play area. If three matching prize amounts — which include a free ticket, $2, $5, $25, $50, $100 or $100,000 — are uncovered, the player wins that amount.

An additional feature to the Bankroll game is that all $25, $50 and $100 winners will be eligible to win $1 million along with the prize money they have already won.

All validated tickets with prize amounts of $25, $50 or $100 will be sent to Springfield for a random drawing. Seven finalists will be chosen and, in a separate drawing, one will win $1 million, one will win $25,000, two will win $15,000 each and three will win $10,000 each.

The Bankroll game replaces the Moneybags instant game.

Benefit dance to aid woman

A benefit dance will take place Sunday to raise funds for the Cathy Werner Sellers Cancer Fund. Mrs. Sellers is a former Granite City resident.

The dance will be conducted from 1 to 10 p.m. at the Bunker Hill American Legion, Bunker Hill, Ill. Donations will be $5 for adults. Children younger than 12 will be admitted free. The first 100 ticket purchasers will receive a free hot beef sandwich to be provided by Rax Restaurants, sponsor of the event.

Five bands will be featured throughout the day. Door prizes will be awarded.

Those wishing further information may call Bob or Tina Curvar at 585-3708 or Carla White at 676-6294.

News of Quad-City area, servicemen serving in the various branches of the U.S. military includes:

COMMENDED by the
4th Training Battalion, Field Artillery Training Center, Fort Sill, Okla., Pvt. Todd B. Webb, 20, has been in the Army since November. The 1982 Granite City High School North graduate is the son of County Board Member William B. Webb, 4053 Stearns Ave. In spite of physical training hampered by one of the harshest winters in Oklahoma history, the new soldier scored 299 out of a possible 300 points on the basic physical fitness test and 30 out of 30 "first time go's" on the end-of-cycle test. Two commendations cited "hard work, dedication, positive motivation, drive, determination and ability to perform vital tasks with first-time precision and accuracy." His superior performance was described as "an inspiration for others to follow."

WILLIAM SCHAEFER
Private William T. Schaefer, son of Betty J. Furkapple of 1610 Sixth St., Madison, and William G. Schaefer of 804 E. Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell, has completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S.C. He is a 1983 graduate of Granite City High School North.

'Stars' here for Black History Month

By PAY HAYLUTZ
for the Press-Record

Harriet Tubman, Mary Bethune, Dr. Daniel Hale Williams, George Washington Carver, Jesse Jackson and Michael Jackson were some of the visitors at Dunbar School in Venice to participate in a salute to Black History Month.

Well, those people weren't exactly available, so Head Start students portrayed these and other blacks who have made significant contributions to America in an after-school program last week.

During the program, students explained the arrival of blacks as slaves in this country and went on to recognize the contributions that their characters have made, such as Dr. Daniel Hale Williams' first open-heart surgery and Mary Bethune's first school for girls. Other contributions included the first spotlight in America, the discovery of the peanut and the first hair permanent-relaxer.

The program ended with Perry McNary imitating Michael Jackson singing "Billie Jean" while the other participants danced in the aisles.

The students also helped to make the "soul feast" provided after the entertainment, which included fruit salad, corn bread, fried chicken and mixed greens.

The Head Start Program at Dunbar, previously sponsored by the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission, now is under the sponsorship of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Port, Terminal Association is hosting annual meeting

The Inland Rivers Ports and Terminals Association is conducting its annual meeting in St. Louis this week at the Sheraton St. Louis Hotel. About 300 people from all over the United States are attending the meetings, which opened yesterday and conclude tomorrow.

The Inland Rivers Ports and Terminals Association was formed to provide a forum for the exchange of ideas, experience and to advocate the views of port districts, ports and terminals on the nation's inland waterways. The association represents all segments of the inland water transportation industry and is concerned with port, terminal and shoreline development.

The topics to be discussed at the meeting include the role of states in port development; railroad-barge ownership-acquisition; user fees and cost sharing; and the future of agricultural exports on the water transportation industry.

Scott Field open house on May 20

The annual Scott Air Force Base Open House is scheduled for Sunday, May 20, base officials announced yesterday.

The gates will open to the public at 9 a.m. The Thunderbirds aerial demonstration team will perform at the free event. In addition to this airshow performance at 3 p.m., many military and civilian aircraft will be on display for the viewing public. The day's activities will conclude at 4 p.m.

Scott is located off exit 19A of Interstate 64 near Belleville. Additional information is available from the base public affairs office at 1-256-4241.

Social Security report deadline is drawing near

People who get Social Security checks and who earned more than the annual amount in wages from a job or self-employment in 1983 have until April 16, 1984, to file an annual report of their earnings. Oliver Holmes, Social Security district manager in E. St. Louis, said this week.

The 1983 exempt amounts were $2,920 for people who were under 65 all of the year and $6,600 for people 65 or over in any part of 1983.

In general, a person has $1 in benefits withheld for each $2 of annual earnings over the exempt amount.

Social Security uses the annual report to decide whether the person received the correct amount of benefits during 1983. If too much or too little was paid, any adjustment necessary is made based on the annual report.

A special monthly test is used during a person's first year of retirement.

Under the test, a person can get a benefit for a month in which he or she did not earn wages over the monthly limit and did not perform substantial services in self-employment. This monthly test can be used only in the person's first year of retirement.

Most people who need to file a report should have received one in the mail.

If a person did not get a form, or a lost or misplaced the one he or she did get, another copy of the annual report form can be obtained at the E. St. Louis Social Security office, located at 650 Missouri Ave. The telephone number is 274-4100 or, if this is a toll-call, the caller may dial the operator and ask for Enterprise 1-555.

The people at the office will answer any questions. They also have a leaflet, "How work affects your Social Security checks," which contains more information about the earnings test.

The annual exempt amounts for 1984 are $5,160 for people under 65 and $6,960 for those 65 or over. A different test applies to people who get benefits because of disability.

ARREST MAN ON DUI

Michael Bridges, 2014 Edwardsville Road, Madison, was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol during the weekend when police stopped his automobile at Sixth Street and Alton Avenue. He allegedly used profanity in language but agreed to take a breathalyzer test. He was later released on $302 cash bail and is to appear in court on April 13.
